

America and the Jewish Entity Are Ailing and Cornered: Allah Unfolds a Golden Opportunity for the Rulers and Armies of the Muslims

The aggression perpetrated by the axis of evil – the United States (US) and its protégé, the Jewish entity – against Iran has once again proven that international law, international institutions such as the United Nations (UN) or the International Court of Justice (ICJ), and any other international forums, cannot be trusted to guarantee the security of Muslim lands. All these institutions do not work when it comes to the Muslim Ummah.

This aggression against Iran further demonstrates that the US and its Western allies will never tolerate the military might of any Muslim nation, regardless of the extent to which these nations cooperate with the US. Furthermore, it is glaringly evident that the US and its allies pay no heed to the sectarian affiliations (Madhhab) of Muslims when launching their attacks, despite being the very instigators who have continually divided us along sectarian lines to prevent our unification.

Their animosity toward Islam and its Ummah is glaringly apparent in their utterances, exactly as Allah (swt) has decreed in the Al-Quran. The US Secretary of Defense, Pete Hegseth, recently remarked, “a crazy regime like Iran, obsessed with Islamic prophetic delusions, cannot possess nuclear weapons.” Meanwhile, US Secretary of State Marco Rubio stated on March 3, 2026, “This terrorist, radical, and cleric-led regime must absolutely not be allowed to possess nuclear weapons.”

Although the Iranian regime has, over the past tens of years, fully supported and assisted in achieving US foreign policy objectives in Afghanistan, Iraq, Yemen, and Syria, the moment US foreign policy objectives necessitated the reduction of Iran's military power and influence in the Middle East, the US entirely disregarded the regime's decades of service. The US launched its strikes regardless of the extensive “favors” the Iranian regime had previously bestowed upon it.

This should serve as a profound lesson for every Muslim ruler. Regrettably, these rulers never seem to learn, even after witnessing their peers being disgracefully discarded by the US right before their eyes, following decades of subservient service. The US has never cared for such loyalty, and consistently prioritizes its own self-interests. Indeed, it has been unequivocally proven that the US is perfectly willing to eliminate its own “slaves” whenever its interests demand it.

If the US, its protégé the Jewish entity, and its Western allies cannot tolerate Iran's potential nuclear and military capabilities, then these rulers must remember that the US will equally abhor the military capabilities of Pakistan, Turkey, Egypt, and others. Should they display even a fraction of courage to deviate from US policies and interests, they will inevitably share the fate of Iran or their predecessors.

What remains certain is that this US attack on Iran has exposed the vulnerabilities of the US, an entity perceived as formidable by many. The US is now “hurting” as a consequence of its miscalculations in this offensive. The US presumed it could topple Iran in the blink of an eye, yet it was demonstrably mistaken. This war on Iran merely adds to the US's roster of defeats, having previously been vanquished in Afghanistan and Iraq.

The US and its protégé, the Jewish entity, have also never achieved victory in Gaza, despite relentlessly showering it with every conceivable type of bomb for over two years. To this day, they have failed to achieve their objectives in Gaza, despite mercilessly massacring a vulnerable and unarmed enclave.

Consequently, the current global and regional geopolitical landscape presents a golden opportunity for Muslim nations – particularly those possessing military might such as Pakistan, Turkey, Egypt, Afghanistan, and others – to liberate themselves from the US. Beyond merely breaking free, this is the moment to assist Iran in delivering a fatal blow to the US. Now is the time to dismantle US hegemony in the region specifically, and the world generally, by mobilizing their military forces – rather than merely offering empty moral support – to aid Iran in defeating the US and the Jewish entity.

It is evident that the US now stands isolated, both internationally and regionally. Its arrogance and transgressive atrocities have compelled its Western allies to abandon it to fight its war against Iran and vie for control of the Strait of Hormuz alone.

Meanwhile, Russia and China are actively challenging US hegemony in Eurasia. Concurrently, regional Arab regimes have begun to falter, feeling deeply insecure under the US security umbrella, as it has become starkly apparent that US bases within their borders have been easily bombarded by Iran without the US being able to defend them.

Therefore, if the Muslim nations were to unite – especially a nuclear-armed Pakistan – and extend their military assistance to Iran to combat the US and the Jewish entity, the US could – by the will of Allah – easily be defeated and ignominiously expelled from the region. Furthermore, the Jewish entity could – by the will of Allah – be eradicated within a matter of days, if not hours.

The US is currently cornered by its own missteps and hubris, and is attempting to sue for peace with Iran. This situation mirrors the plight of the Quraysh disbelievers when they violated the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah. The ensuing circumstances turned so unfavorable for the Quraysh that it compelled Abu Sufyan to travel personally to Medina in an attempt to revive the treaty to avert war.

That golden opportunity was laid bare and was not squandered by the Messenger of Allah (saw). With consummate political astuteness, he (saw) did not entertain Abu Sufyan's request; instead, he mobilized the Muslim army towards Mecca. Thus, on the 20th of Ramadan in the 8th year of Hijrah, a golden chapter of history was written with the successful liberation (Futuh) of Mecca, at a time when the Quraysh disbelievers were weakened, cornered, and isolated due to their own errors and arrogance.

Similarly, in the current situation, a golden opportunity has opened wide for Muslim rulers at a time when the US is factually cornered and isolated – if only these rulers still possess remnants of faith, sincerity, and wisdom. If they seize this opportunity now, Insha Allah, they will be able to defeat the US and liberate not only the entire Middle East, but the whole world from US hegemony. Sweetest of all, they will be able to liberate Masjid Al-Aqsa, the entirety of Palestine, and bury the Jewish entity forever.

To the sincere armies of the Muslims: now is the time for you to grant your Nusrat (material support) to Hizb ut Tahrir, should your rulers remain hard-hearted and continue to pour their loyalty and submission to the US. At a time when your rulers choose humiliation over the golden opportunity that Allah has unfolded for them, abandon them. Grant your Nusrat to Hizb ut Tahrir so that it may establish the Khilafah (Caliphate), thereby immediately mobilizing you to the battlefield of jihad to attain one of two absolute glories: victory or martyrdom.

The time is now... the time is now... the time is now, O armies of the Muslims!
