

No Matter What You Say, It Won't Help!

News :

President Erdoğan said, "The butchers of Gaza must receive the necessary punishment. With the steps we have taken, we will hopefully cut off their (Zionist 'Israel') breath... He said that the massacre carried out by the Netanyahu administration in Gaza has gone down in history as a "black stain" and that this stain has also stuck to the foreheads of the countries that support it unconditionally and unconditionally. While the metamorphosed Jewish entity, the brother of pigs and monkeys, continues its blood-curdling, hair-raising brutal genocide, leaving no stone upon stone and no head upon shoulder, Erdoğan, as is his custom, continued his series of verbose statements. "We will not forget this genocide and will not let it be forgotten." Genocide cannot be forgotten with words, O Erdoğan! If you really do not want it to be forgotten and made to be forgotten, and if you want to take an action that will make the freak Zionist entity forget even the devil's whim, let alone the genocide, you have to take an action that will be written in the history books with golden letters, just like Saladin Ayyubi and Muzaffar Qutuz, engraved in the minds of the ummah, passed down from generation to generation, and named after their children so that they will be remembered until doomsday, O Erdogan! Because words are fleeting, it is actions and behaviours that are permanent.

Who remembers the Sabra and Shatila massacre? Who remembers the daily massacres committed by the Jews, brothers of pigs and monkeys? Has Erdoğan ensured that they are not forgotten? On the contrary, he hosted Jewish leaders in his palace on red carpets and took steps to normalise the situation. But the victories of Saladin and Muzaffar Qutuz, the slap in the face of the Jews by Abdul Hamid, are remembered even by the children of the Ummah in the remotest corners of the world, despite the passage of centuries.

Erdogan says in his anonymous voice: "The butchers of Gaza must be punished appropriately". He refers to the unknown who will punish them, he cannot say "we will give the necessary punishment". He says that he will cut off their breath and respiration, but with the commercial ships and water he sends, he gives breath and respiration to the freak Jewish entity. Erdoğan's rhetoric is refuted by his actions, his actions are the mirror of his words.

While America and England send ammunition to the Jewish entity, the brother of monkeys and pigs, and ensure its security from the air with fighter jets, on land, the traitorous and puppet rulers of the Islamic world, including Erdoğan, continue to be the Garkad tree for the Jews. Probably the Garkad tree behind which the Jews mentioned in the hadith will hide must be the treacherous rulers of today. Because they do their best to protect the Jews hiding behind them, instead of mobilising the armies in the barracks to destroy the Jews, they keep the armies in their barracks, and only take them out of their barracks for military exercises or to protect the interests of their master America. How better to be a Garkad tree?

Erdoğan says that the Gaza massacre is a black stain and that this black stain sticks to the foreheads of the countries that unconditionally support it, but as it is clear from his rhetoric, he exempts himself from this. Well, we ask: Isn't keeping silent on the massacre except for making empty statements, not taking any action except for humanitarian aid and transporting the sick, and even supporting the murderer who committed massacre and genocide with commercial elements and water, as mentioned above, not unconditional support? How can Erdoğan exempt himself from this?

If Erdogan wants to distance himself from the betrayal committed by the rulers of the Islamic country, he must act in a way that will make the metamorphosed Jewish entity forget the whispering of the devil, not with rhetoric and hunger, but with actions and operations. Only then can it be free from the black stain on its forehead. Otherwise, even if the Ummah forgets this black stain on the forehead of the treacherous rulers, Hizb ut Tahrir will not forget and will ensure that it is not forgotten, and even if we forget, history will not forget.

But to expect from rulers like Erdoğan an action that would make the Jewish entity forget the whispering of the devil is, of course, like beating water in a mortar. Because the rulers in the Islamic world are metaphorically the Garkad tree of the Jews. Only the Islamic State Caliphate can give the necessary punishment to the Jews. As mentioned in the hadith, the destruction of the Jews depends on war. Since the reins and will of today's rulers are in the hands of others, they are not in a position to decide on war. Only the Khilafah (Caliphate), whose will is based on Shariah law, can decide on war. Therefore, if the Muslims want to purify and cleanse the blessed land of Palestine from the Jews, they must work to establish the Khilafah and seek Nusrah from the armies.
