Comment:

More than a year has passed since the outbreak of civil war in Sudan, between the army forces, led by the infamous Burhan, and the Rapid Support Forces, led by the cursed Dagalo. The civil war has caused widespread destruction. It has caused the loss of the lives of thousands of Muslim civilians and soldiers. It has caused the displacement of millions from their lands. It has caused the incitement of the pre-Islamic ignorant (Jahiliyah) tribal strife that the Messenger of Allah (saw) placed under the feet of the two nobles, Umar bin Al-Khattab (ra) and Hamza ibn Abdul-Muttalib (ra) when they led a single procession of Companions (ra) from the various tribes.

These horrific disasters and terrible crimes that befell Sudan are the result of a struggle for power, as they claim. It is between the two sides of the leaders of the military forces in the country. However, if this were really true, the form of the conflict in the country would have been different. It would have been based on executions and assassinations between the two parties. That is, Al-Burhan, for example, would have executed Dagalo last year when he arrested him, or Dagalo would have sent one of his mercenaries to assassinate Al-Burhan. However, the actual result is that these two wretched men are using the country's military capabilities, from both sides, to destroy the country. They are using Sudan's capabilities against it, for its division, with the killing and displacement of its people. They have done so until the situation of the country became no different from that of the Gaza Strip, which was targeted by the forces of global evil, led by the Jews with whom Allah (swt) is angry.

Under the pretext of eliminating the resistance, the state of the Jews completely destroyed the Gaza Strip. Likewise, in the case of Sudan, under the pretext of the struggle for power, and inclining to one political side over another, Sudan was destroyed. The clashing, competing forces in Sudan wreaked havoc upon Sudan, just as the Jews wreaked havoc on Gaza. These two wretched people and Netanyahu, with whom they had normalized relations, are the same. They all made the same false claim, whilst the goal of their evil is another matter entirely, which is to destroy the country and kill the people. This is only because they are pawns in the hands of the criminal world leaders, who plot against Islam and Muslims day and night.

The sincere officers in the armed forces in Sudan, and all the military forces within it, must target Al-Burhan and Dagalo, uprooting both of them and their entourages. They must replace them with the sincere political leadership in the country. This is by sincere officers in the Sudanese armed forces giving their Nussrah to Hizb ut Tahrir to establish the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of the Prophethood. Only the Khilafah will unify the Muslims of Sudan. Moreover, under the banner of the Khilafah, the countries of the Nile River, which are more than ten countries, will unify. Thus, the arisen Khilafah Rashidah will then become the strong nucleus of a massive Islamic state in the world. Allah (swt) said, ﴿لِمَنْ لِهَذَا فَلْيَعْمَلِ الْعَامِلُونَ﴾
“For such honour all must strive.” [TMQ Surah As-Saffat 37:61].
