

The Jewish Entity Is a Western Forward Military Base in the Heart of the Muslim World

(Translated)

News:

US Senator Lindsey Graham said, "Whether you're a Christian evangelical or not, Israel is a good deal for America. If the IDF, Mossad, and Shin Bet went away tomorrow, we would be blind in this region. The money we provide to Israel, we get back tenfold in terms of security." (Source)

Comment:

The fallacy that the Jewish entity and Jewish lobbies in various Western countries, including America, control political decision-making in those countries has long been propagated. This fallacy is deliberately disseminated and promoted by regimes in the Muslim World, their media outlets, and others to justify their inaction and silence regarding Jewish crimes in the Blessed Land of Palestine and to excuse their silence regarding the Jewish occupation of the first Qibla and the Third Sacred Masjid in Islam, the blessed Al-Masjid Al-Aqsa. However, reality proves that the Jewish entity cannot maintain its existence, let alone achieve its security, except through the support of others—America, Western countries, and their client regimes. Indeed, a prominent American policymaker has explicitly confirmed this fact, not merely analyzed it, by acknowledging that the Jewish entity is a "win-win deal" for America and, previously, for Britain.

The political concept we know is based on the idea that the West, led by America, uses Jews to carry out its dirty work against the Muslim World on its behalf. Western governments, when presenting Jews as a tool of pressure or an active agent, do so to shift the blame onto them, not themselves, and to justify their conspiracies and plots against Islam and Muslims. This includes their plotting against the project of establishing the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood and those working towards it.

The Zionists and the Zionist movement worldwide, particularly in the West, are not exclusively Jewish, even though Jews are a part of them. In fact, most of them, and those who control the Zionist movement, are the decision-makers in the West, the vested interests and capitalists or, as some might say, the "deep state" in the West. These are the ones who wage war against Islam and Muslims, striving to prevent the unification of the Islamic Ummah under the Khilafah through their forward military base in the heart of the Muslim World: the "Jewish entity." For them, the Jewish entity is merely a launching pad from which to confront the Islamic Ummah. The Jews and the alleged anti-Semitism are the least of their concerns. Their pronouncements about anti-Semitism and its defense are contradicted by their racist policies and practices against other races, ethnicities, and religions. In other words, they are not ideological or value-based defenders of freedoms, nationalities, religions, or ethnicities. Instead, they defend only one race, driven by a malicious intent to achieve their own interests, undermine the Islamic Ummah, and prevent the resurgence of Islam under the Khilafah.

Therefore, this understanding and the picture must be clear so that we do not misinterpret what is happening around us. Neither America nor the West cares about the Jews or their entity except to the extent that the entity serves its own interests. The West is the one that expelled Jews from its lands and considered getting rid of them an achievement. It is not concerned with anti-Semitism in the least. Instead, these are slogans they use as pretexts to confront the Islamic Ummah and its project, represented by its Khilafah under the leadership of Hizb ut Tahrir. This is exactly like the slogans of the old Crusades, such as "liberating the birthplace of Christ from the Muslims," while the real slogan was "Let us go to the land of milk and honey." Similarly, the slogan of exporting freedom and democracy to Iraq and the Middle East was used, while the real objective was Muslim oil and shaping a new Middle East led by America, not Britain.
