Only the Khilafah Will Ensure World Leading Education for Our Sons and Daughters

Published in the run-up to International Women's Day on March 8, the UNESCO's 'eAtlas of Gender Inequality in Education' report shows that huge percentages of girls and boys are denied education. In Pakistan 2.9 million adolescent girls, or a staggering 53 per cent of those of lower secondary school-going age, are out of school, compared to 43 per cent of such boys, representing a figure of 2.6 million. The prime minister and the four chief ministers will jointly lead a national campaign from 1 April 2016 to achieve 100 per cent primary enrolment by 2018 to meet an international target set under the sustainable development goals.

Since the creation of Pakistan, education has been woefully neglected and corrupted, leading to millions our sons and daughters being deprived of an education that Islam has mandated as a right for them. Due to the capitalist economy which deprives the treasury of much needed revenue, state education is appalling, whilst private education is unaffordable. In addition, the British colonialist education has divided empirical sciences from Islamic education to form two separate institutions, main stream schools and madrassas. This has continued to be implemented in almost the same format, without consideration of Islam's viewpoint on this matter. In Islam there is no detachment of religion from life, unlike Western civilization. Islam is the basis for all of our actions and viewpoints upon life. However, the current education seeks to produce on the one hand "worldly" people, who do not hold Islam as a world view, and on the other, a clergy that was not able to apply Islam to practical life. This dichotomy has led to a decline in our thinking, the adoption of western concepts, the development of western sentiments, the loss of competent Ulema, intellectuals and sincere politicians. And that is why people cry that there is a "vacuum in leadership." The current education policy aims to keep Islam out practical life and make it an academic subject, whereas Islam mandates the development of dynamic, sincere and aware Islamic personalities.

Thus the Khilafah (Caliphate) cultures people by Islam in a manner that they are able to apply Islam in their political as well as individual lives. And they know the purpose of their life in this world is to worship Allah (swt), rather than divorcing Islam from political life. This ensures that the sons and daughters of the Ummah look to their Deen to provide solutions to the problems the Ummah faces, economically, politically, internally and externally. It is this that allowed an Islamic civilization that was a beacon of light for over a millennium. The state produced brilliant sons and daughters, pioneers and leading authorities in fields as diverse as mathematics and medicine, jurisprudence and astronomy. Arabic language, the official language of the Khilafah, became the mark of the educated men and women of the world. And the cities of the Khilafah were the favoured destination for education of the European elite. Nothing less than the abolition of democracy and restoration of the Khilafah upon the method of the Prophethood will secure the education we deserve.

Regime Walks the Road of Betrayal of the Muslims of Syria

Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif arrived in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on 9 March 2016 on a three-day official visit on the invitation of King Salman bin Abdulaziz, whilst Chief of Army Staff General Raheel Sharif and Special Assistant to PM on Foreign Affairs Tariq Fatemi are accompanying the prime minister on the visit. From Hafar Al-Batin, the prime minister went to King Khalid military city to oversee matters pertaining the Saudi-led coalition that was announced in October 2015. A spokesman for the Saudi Defense Ministry said on 7 March that the “North Thunder” military exercise promoted the exchange of military expertise between the 21 participating countries. Speaking at a press conference in Hafar Al-Batin where the drill is taking place, Brigadier General Ahmed Asiri explained that Arab and Islamic countries were taking part in a number of tasks, including exercises aimed at encouraging cooperation between the various forces. He added that the training also included exercises on how to combat guerrilla warfare, noting that the tactic is used by armed militias intervening in Arab states, such as Syria and Yemen.

At a time when America has failed to find an alternative to its agent in Syria, Bashar al-Assad, Pakistan's regime is playing its role as part of a coalition to secure the survival of the Syrian tyrant against the blessed revolution, whose motto is "الأمة تريد خلافة من جديد" "The Ummah wants the Khilafah again." The regime has transformed the formidable Pakistan Army into a mercenary force to serve the Western Crusader colonial interests around the world at the drop of a hat, yet scorn at Hizb ut Tahrir's call for the Pakistan Army to be mobilized in support of the Muslims of Afghanistan, Occupied Kashmir, Palestine and Syria. The Muslims know well from their experience in Afghanistan that Russian and American troops facing Muslims motivated by Imaan are paralyzed by their cowardice, despite their sophisticated weaponry. Cowardice when confronted by Imaan prevents the Kuffar from practically realizing their plans and forces them to seek support from the treacherous regimes in the Muslim World, demanding our armed forces to “do more” when the Western crusaders can “do nothing.” And today in Syria, neither Russia nor America have any hope of halting the return of the Khilafah (Caliphate) of the Method of the Prophethood despite all their political maneuvering and so are yanking hard on the chains of their agents, from Cairo to Riyadh and onwards to Islamabad.

Culture of Judicial Self-Projection is Caused by Democracy

Chief Justice of Pakistan (CJP) Anwar Zaheer Jamali on 9 March bemoaned the “culture of self-projection” in the judiciary, saying that it is “harming its dignity and image”. “A culture has developed to compete with each other by writing judgments that run into over 1,000 pages, merely for self-projection,” regretted the chief justice. “If God Almighty has bestowed upon you the power of pen, it should be used to dispense justice within the confines of the issues raised in the case only,” the CJP went on to say. The chief justice was heading a three-judge Supreme Court bench, which had taken up an appeal instituted by National Assembly Speaker Ayaz Sadiq against PTI Chief Imran Khan, challenging the Aug 22, 2015, imposition of a cost by the election tribunal over irregularities committed during the 2013 general elections in NA-122.

The culture of self-projection is just the tip of the iceberg. Settling the disputes, accounting the rulers and securing the rights of the people is now in an appalling state in the Muslim World since the abolition of the Shariah which was implemented through the Khilafah. The Shariah was abolished firstly under the Western occupation, that began in the eighteenth century, and then through the abolition of the Khilafah in 1342 AH which is 1924 CE. Since then the criterion has become the human mind in defining the issue of crime, conviction and punishment. Now the Muslim World implements Kufur laws, with a selective implementation of Islam. This has led to oppression upon the citizens, regardless of their school of thought, gender, religion and race. In Pakistan, it is British law, including the Criminal procedure Code (CrPC) which was originally written in 1898, that defines crime, trial and punishment. The people sense that privileged people escape punishment whilst the weak in society are falsely implicated in cases, with prolonged court cases sometimes exceeding decades. So today the judiciary is characterized by might is right and justice delayed, justice denied and people avoid them as much as possible. So it is no surprise that when men will lose humility in such a system and will be afflicted by arrogance, self-projection and oppression.

Unlike Democracy, in Islam, it is Allah (swt) Who has revealed the laws regarding the crime, its testimonial evidence and punishment. The judge is humbled by the responsibility of providing justice according to the laws of his own Creator (swt). Allah (swt) said, ﴿أَلَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ خَلَقَ وَهُوَ اللَّطِيفُ الْخَبِيرُ﴾ “Should not He Who has created know And He is the Most Kind and Courteous, All-Aware.” [Surah al-Mulk 67:14] Islam is the firm basis of the judiciary in the Khilafah. Ignorance (Jahl) is other than Islam, including the British law, French penal codes and all other forms of Kufur. The judge, whether he is a man or women, Hanifi or Jafari, must be knowledgeable in Islam for he or she will judge by it. And the one who judges by other than Islam is in Hellfire, Rasullah (saaw) said in the authentic hadith, «الْقَضَاءُ ثَلَاثَةٌ: وَاحِدٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَاثْنَانِ فِي النَّارِ، فَأَمَّا الَّذِي فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَرَجُلٌ عَرَفَ «The judges are of three types: one is in heaven, the other is in fire. As for the one who is Jannah, he is the man who knows the truth and judges by it, whereas the one who knows the truth and aggrieves it in judgment, he is in fire. And the man who judges for the people on ignorance is also in fire.” [Abu Dawud]

Jihad by Pakistan Army Against Indian Occupation of Kashmir is Mandatory

The United States and India have agreed to ‘deepen’ their close collaboration in the fight against Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) and Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM), the White House said. In a statement issued after US National Security Adviser Susan E. Rice’s meeting with Indian Foreign Secretary Subrahmanyam Jaishankar on 8 March, the United States also underlined the need for greater cooperation with India for combating terrorist groups operating in Kashmir. “Building on their leaders’ commitment to make the US-India partnership a defining relationship for the 21st century, they agreed to deepen their already close collaboration on these issues,” the statement added.

America fully realizes that Pakistan alone can overturn its plans for dominance in the Indian Subcontinent, whereas its submission will ensure its success. That is why every regime that serves America has played a critical role in furthering this American plan by striking hard at the Muslims. America fears the love of Jihad within the Muslims, which is our most powerful weapon on the battlefield, so America’s agents abandoned and then persecuted the groups fighting India for the complete liberation of Kashmir. The American agents then ensnared Pakistan’s armed forces in America’s war against the Muslims in the tribal regions. These agents then made radical changes in the Army’s green book, so that our military was focused inwards, rather than towards India, shifting the majority of our forces from the Eastern border to the Western border. Now America is consolidating its position regarding Jihad with India, whilst the regime is blindly submitting to American mediated talks with India. And all of this is from a regime which commands the largest Muslim armed forces in the world, strengthened by nuclear weapons and hundreds of thousands of soldiers and officers who fear none but Allah (swt). True, indeed are the words of RasuAllah (saw), «ما ترك قوم الجهاد إلا ذنوا» “No people abandon Jihad expect that they are humiliated” [Ahmad].

Islam did not allow submission to the Kuffar in our affairs. Rather Islam demands that Muslims counter the enemy with all that the Muslims possess, whether great means or little. Anas narrated that RasulAllah (saw) said, «جَاهِدُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ وَأَلْسِنَتِكُمْ» “Fight the mushrikeen with your wealth, yourselves and your tongues.” [Abu Dawud] Yet, rather than mobilizing our considerable strength against the enemy, the regime is using it all to strengthen India as part of America’s larger strategy for the region.
