

Fighting with Islam in the pretext of Fighting with Daesh!

(Translated)

News:

Recently the Afghanistan Security Council approved a very important secretive and strategic document in regard to fighting with Daesh. The Security Council spokesperson, Tawab Ghorzang, has called the objective of the strategy “further cooperation of people with Afghan security forces against fighting with Daesh.” In this strategic document, Daesh is called the enemy of Afghan national security and fight against Daesh is mandated the responsibility of every Afghan beside national security forces. As per Ghorzang’s saying, political and social forces will be arranged to fight against Daesh along with security forces. The strategy is submitted to security forces for implementation, but further information other than this is not shared with media.

Comment:

The proclaimed strategy is not a new achievement, but it is part of the series of the criminal act that America, NATO and their puppet government are committing in the last fourteen years under the name of fighting with terrorism and Al-Qaeda. They, through colonizing forces, Afghan national forces, local police, Special Forces, national revolutionists and through their intelligence and security company’s rental killers, have shed the blood of Afghan Muslims and Mujahid population under the name of fighting with Al-Qaeda.

This is not what we claim, but sometimes the American themselves confess such crimes. For instance, in these recent days, the Times Magazine has published the article of a retired colonel, Daniel Davis, who has written the article after traveling to Afghanistan. He pointed to the Bon Conference and then America’s mediation in National Unity Government crises and called American military and political policies failed in Afghanistan. He added that after two months consecutive bombardment and toppling Taliban regime, We, American, without any assessment and study, has formed a government, and accommodated everyone in the government who helped us in Afghanistan. He, during the American colonization, condemned the wrong selection of in government, and added another American failure was the misled trust; Americans were following people whenever indicated by anyone. While anyone was labeling someone “terrorist”, we were pursuing them. Many of these people have done untold cruelties which is difficult to be told, and now they occupy high positions in the government. He, during an interview with VOA, exemplified General Abdur Rasheed Dostam, who is now the first vice president of Afghanistan. The proclamation of new military strategy by puppet criminals is an episode of current series of terror and tyranny against Islam and Muslim.

Similar to this, Bush administration’s previous ambassador and special envoy to Afghanistan, Zalmi Khalilzad in an interview with Tolo News has clearly exposed the process through which they selected their puppet rulers in Afghanistan and then were used against previous Mujahideen.

Though John Kerry's government president, Mohammad Ashraf Ghani, has several announcements of claiming Daesh being defeated in Afghanistan, but few months ago, he again pointed to Daesh as a threat to Afghanistan, region and the world and call upon his international allies to help him in finishing Daesh in Afghanistan. And now he drafted the strategy to organize some deceived Afghan people and forces or mercenaries to fight against Islam and Muslim under the name of fighting and preventing terrorism and terrorist groups.

John Kerry's government has previously tried to unite and coordinate civil society, human rights and women's right activists, Ministry of Haj and Religious Affairs' palace scholars, active media, foreign embassies' analysts and Ashraf Ghani's advisors "under so called Islamic specialists" to deviate Islam and present its secular picture to people contrary to that of honest callers of Islam.

Our message to Afghan and Mujahid people is that, don't be deceived and drowned in the conspiracies and don't repeat the previous bitter experiences like before because West wants to beat Afghan Muslim through their Muslim brothers. Hizb ut Tahrir exists amongst you for over sixty years with international political experience, and for fundamental change, based on the approach of the Prophet (saw) acts thoughtfully and politically, and call upon all Muslim groups to hold on to the rope of Allah firmly, and leave the West's rope, and use their political wisdom as expected from Muslims so that all Muslims rise up for fundamental change, and for this purpose remove the East's and West's blasphemous culture from their societies, and promote Islamic culture in all walks of life instead until the Righteous Caliphate establishment wraps up the wave of colonization and exploitation not only from Afghanistan but from all the Islamic lands.
