

You're Incapable of Making a Comma and Certainly not Able to Make a Dot
The One who will Make a Dot is no Other than the Khaleefah Al-Rashidah!

News:

The Erdogan-Trump meeting, which has been expected for days, took place in the White House. (News Agencies)

Comment:

Before going into the details of this meeting, it is useful to emphasize the following points: Turkey's President Erdogan made a visit to Russia and China before his visit to the United States. In the spotlight during the Russia visit was Syria, while some economic deals became the highlight during the visit to China. Erdogan seems to have forgotten the extent of the enmity of these states towards Islam and the Muslims (missing word)! While Russia slaughters the Muslims in Central Asia and Syria, China is oppressing the Muslims of East Turkestan and does not even give them the right to live. These are the kind of killers and terror states with whom Erdogan is joining. What a shame!

As to President Erdogan's visit to America, if we express it with a single sentence, it ended up with frustration. He could not achieve any of his demands; neither in ending the support to PYD, nor in the remand of Gulen. However, before his visit to America, Erdogan stormed around with such issues only to give a message to the people in Turkey. As usual, he failed to put actions about it.

He made statements like, "We are going to America in order to make a dot and not a comma. We can come unexpectedly in the night (referring to YPG). We can stand on our own feet", upon America's delivery of heavy weapons to PYD/YPG. And of course, we witnessed how serious he was with his statements during his visit. The meeting held in the Oval Office and lasted only twenty minutes. At least half of this time passed with translations. So that is all about Erdogan's value for America! In short, this is how low a person can stoop. Yet, in spite of all this, Erdogan still seeks dignity and honor with America.

These are the highlights of the press statement of Erdogan and Trump:

- Trump said nothing about the demands of Turkey. He talked about the past of Turkish-American relationships. He said good things about Turkey. On the other side, he did not say a single word regarding the demands voiced by Turkey.

- Without even using the name of YPG, Trump simply stated, "We support Turkey in the fight against terror and terror groups like Isis and the PKK." With this statement, Trump confirmed that they (USA) disregard Turkey's demands regarding PYD/YPG, and that they will continue to support PYD in Syria. Consequently, it became obvious how worthless Erdogan's words of "YPG is not suitable to be addressed". America arrogantly responded to Erdogan with the message of “you cannot question my decisions; you are only to execute my decisions”.

- Trump used the phrase "The relationship that we (Turkey and USA) have together will be unbeatable ". Trump is extremely mistaken in this regard. With the permission of Allah, the Khilafah is the only power capable to defeat you and the likes of you. You will see that soon.

- Erdogan said, “We have been enjoining a close cooperation with key organizations such as the United States, the UN, NATO and the G-20.” Does Erdogan not know that these institutions are just America’s tool in realizing its worldwide interests? Also has he forgotten the fact that these evil organizations are America’s pawns in shedding the blood of Muslims and exploiting them?

- Erdogan also said: "Those who are willing to turn to chaos in Syria, Iraq, Yemen, and Libya are bound to lose eventually. Solidarity and close cooperation of two allies is enough to defeat murderous networks.” Erdogan should be asked: Does he not know that it is in fact America who creates chaos, fires up disorder in the regions, who terrorizes countries and societies? And Erdogan said, “President Trump’s recent election victory has led to the awakening of a new set of aspirations and expectations and hopes in our region. And we know that, by the help of the new U.S. administration, these hopes will not be lost in vain...” How can he speak highly of a colonialist state which slaughters Muslims, exploits them, destroys their lands and generates instability? How can he pin his hopes on this state?

Consequently, Erdogan and the likes of him will never make a dot. They have not one iota of worth in the eyes of those colonialist Kuffar. America and its counterparts only use this kind of persons as tools in realizing their interests. However, despite of all this abasement, it is the only the Khilafah Rashidah that will make the last dot to the relations with the colonialist kuffar.
