

Raheel-Nawaz Regime is Betraying the Muslims of Kashmir because of American Dictates

News:

On 14th July 2015, Syed Ali Geelani, a highly respected leader of the Muslims of Kashmir, firmly rejected the invitation from Pakistan High Commissioner to an Eid celebration party on 21st July, on the grounds that the Kashmir issue was "ignored" in the joint statement between India and Pakistan, issued after the Prime Minister, Nawaz Sharif, and Indian premier, Modi, held a meeting on the sidelines of the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) Summit in Ufa, Russia, on 10 July. Geelani said that, "the Kashmir issue is question of life and death for us. Nobody can take us for granted. And I will not attend the Eid Milan (celebration) in New Delhi to register a symbolic protest."

Comment:

As soon as the joint declaration was announced, in the aftermath of the meeting between Nawaz Sharif and Narendra Modi, Pakistani media, intellectuals and the Muslims of Pakistan and Kashmir in general reacted strongly and negatively. They were astonished and angry at to how it is possible that in a joint statement, the Indian government demand to expedite the judicial process against the suspects behind the Mumbai attack was mentioned, but the Kashmir issue, a deeply felt issue for the Muslims of Pakistan and Kashmir, was totally ignored. The joint statement was so one-sided, that it felt that it was written by the Indian foreign ministry, whilst the Raheel-Nawaz regime just signed it to appease the Hindu mushrikeen.

It is a well-known fact now that America wants India to play the leading regional role under its Asia pivot policy to counter China and any rise of Muslim influence within the region, including the return of the Khilafah. However, this cannot happen until India is totally relieved of pressure from Pakistan. America seeks to assure India that Pakistan will not be an obstacle to India's rise as the regional head of a bloc, particularly in occupied Kashmir, where India has committed almost half a million troops to subjugate the Muslims of Kashmir. In this context, since the era of the Musharraf-Aziz regime, every American client regime in Pakistan, including the current Raheel-Nawaz regime, has withdrawn support from the Mujahedeen fighting the Indian forces in occupied Kashmir. In fact, these American agents have declare any Jihad against the Kaffir aggressors as "terrorism" and buried the issue of Kashmir and with it, the right of the Muslims to liberate their lands from the occupation of the Kuffar.

It is interesting to note that on every issue the Raheel-Nawaz regime moves according to the wishes of her masters sitting in Washington. Knowing of the deep loyalty and compassion of the Muslims of Pakistan towards the Muslims of Kashmir, traitors in the military leadership try to give a false impression that they are not on board with the political wing of the regime, headed by Nawaz Sharif. However, in reality this is not true. It is an open secret that the foreign policy of Pakistan is run by the traitors within the military wing of the regime. That is why we did not see any political representative of the regime making trips to Kabul in order to bring the Afghan government and the Afghan Taliban to the negotiation table. Instead, we saw Raheel Sharif and the ISI chief making repeated trips to Afghanistan, back and forth between Islamabad and Kabul, for this purpose. The traitors in the political leadership never take any step in foreign policy issue without the full backing of the traitors in the military leadership, particularly when it is with regards to India and Kashmir.

Thus, the treachery that unfolded in Ufa, Russia, had the full blessing of the traitors in the military leadership. Also one should not forget that the major change made in the Green Book military doctrine of Pakistan's armed forces was made by Raheel Sharif, when Kayani was the army chief. It now declares that India is no longer the number one national security threat, rather countering the tribal threat to the American occupation of Afghanistan has been made the highest priority. This change in the Green Book was a great success for America, as it is her desire for Pakistan to abandon its India centric policy and focus on saving America from humiliating and utter defeat in Afghanistan, by granting her through negotiations that which she could never achieve through the battlefield. We can see that because of this policy U-turn, whilst India is killing our civilians and soldiers across the Line of Control and Working Boundary, the Raheel-Nawaz regime is totally focused in the tribal regions fighting against those who oppose the American occupation of Afghanistan. Now India undertakes hostile actions, without fear of jaw-breaking retaliation.

Kashmir and its noble Muslims will only be liberated once the Khilafah returns, as the Khaleefah cares for the commands of Allah (swt) alone, so she will mobilize each and every resource, whether political or military, to end the Hindu occupation of Kashmir decisively. And this can be achieved easily, by the permission of Allah (swt), as India itself will collapse before a Khilafah state, stretching from Indonesia through Central Asia and beyond the Middle East, controlling the world's important energy and trade routes.

﴿لَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ رَهْبَةً فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِّنَ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ﴾

“Verily, you (believers) are more awful as a fear in their breasts than Allah. That is because they are a people who comprehend not (the Majesty and Power of Allah)” [Al-Hashr: 13].
