Security is a fruit of Iman; it exists with Iman and vanishes with the vanishing of Iman, forever linked to it. The Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood, soon to be founded, by the Permission of Allah ﷺ, will restore true security to the entire earth, after its absence for a century, when it implements Islam in all aspects of life, spreading security, justice, and goodness throughout the world.

The Significance of Erdogan's Visit to Saudi Arabia and Egypt

(Translated)

By: Ustaadh Asaad Mansour

The first matter that must be examined in Erdogan's visit to his counterparts, Ibn Salman and al-Sisi, is to understand their ties to the major powers, especially the world's leading power, and what that state wants from them in the current circumstances; for it is the major powers that dominate the international scene, and shape the course of other states and their mutual relations.

Through this visit and its outcomes, as well as their prior actions, it becomes clear that Erdogan, Ibn Salman, and al-Sisi are all linked to America, the world's leading power and that it seeks something specific from them at this juncture.

In the meeting between Erdogan and bin Salman, they announced their agreement on all issues in the region according to American plans. They supported Trump's plan to stop the fighting in Gaza, and they had previously pleaded with him, along with Sisi and their ilk, to implement this plan in order to escape embarrassment before their people because of it. Their abandonment of the people of Gaza, based on American orders, under the pretext of "not expanding the scope of the war," meaning, leave the Jewish entity to kill and destroy, and do not interfere. They reaffirmed their loyalty to Trump by participating in his Gaza administration "Board of Peace," which he established under his own chairmanship. Thus, the pharaoh of our time belittled them and they obeyed, which emboldened him to go further and declare that he wants it transformed into a global board to resolve every world issue in America's favor, replacing the UN Security Council, where other major powers hold veto rights that can obstruct American initiatives.

The same pattern appeared in his meeting with al-Sisi, where Erdogan stressed complete alignment on all issues, especially Gaza according to the American plan, and the two agreed to elevate relations to the level of a comprehensive strategic partnership.

In both visits, broad economic agreements were signed to lend them an appearance of cooperation that benefits the people, dangling false hopes and arrogant promises that their economic situation will improve, all to hide the genuine political objectives behind these moves.

When we examine the context of these meetings and the alignment of their parties across every political domain in the present circumstances, knowing their ties, their treacherous stances, and their fixation on Gaza, we see that it is connected to American pressure on the Jewish entity, which continues to stall on implementing the Trump plan, including withdrawal from Gaza, especially now that the second phase has begun. It persists in its aggression, at times killing dozens in a single day, continues demolishing homes and driving out their inhabitants, manipulates the entry of aid and the opening of crossings for people to leave without return, and refuses to allow Turkey any role in Gaza under Trump's administration. Alongside the Iranian sector, where it demands that the United States deliver a crushing blow to topple the regime, even though it orbits firmly in America's sphere. Turkey, Egypt, and Saudi Arabia oppose that strike and instead back the conclusion of an agreement on Iran's nuclear program that would supersede the 2015 deal, known as the 5+1 agreement, allowing America to monopolize it, sideline the other five parties, and turn it into "-5+1"; this would also send a message from Trump to the pampered Jewish entity that other states such as Turkey, Egypt, and Saudi Arabia are important to America, and perform roles no less significant than its own, albeit through softer methods.

Thus it emerges that America stands behind Erdogan's visits and his alignment with Ibn Salman and al-Sisi, despite the fact that only yesterday he portrayed them as adversaries and declared it could never meet them after the coup against Morsi and after the killing of the Saudi journalist Khashoggi. Yet it moved swiftly to reconcile with them, selling out the Muslim Brotherhood and the Khashoggi affair, as is its habit in betraying those who trust it. It opened a new chapter with these two regimes to back it in accordance with American dictates and to carry out important tasks for it in the region.

The Jewish entity cannot risk its relationship with Egypt. It takes care to keep that relationship sound so Egypt remains bound by the Camp David Accords, which removed it from the conflict and preserved the southern front as a secure buffer zone for "Israel." The Gaza war has proven exactly that, as the Egyptian regime did not stir to aid its people, while they faced genocide over two years, and instead blocked any Egyptian popular movement to support their brothers.

Likewise, the Jewish entity is keen on normalization with Saudi Arabia, satisfied with its spectator stance toward the genocide being practiced in Gaza. Riyadh has submitted to American orders in the same manner as virtually all existing regimes in Muslim countries, especially those close to Palestine.

Egypt, Saudi Arabia, and Turkey's reaffirmation of strengthened ties, alignment on every issue particularly Gaza and insistence on implementing the Trump plan, embarrasses the Jewish entity, compels it to carry out that plan, and diminishes its ability to act in a spoiled manner toward America, as though it were the one applying pressure on Washington.

Trump expressed his confidence in and affection for Erdoğan in front of Netanyahu at the White House on April 7, 2025, stating: “He is always there when I need him. He is such a tough guy, he is tough as you can be but we love him... Any problem that you have with Turkey, I think I can solve. I mean, as long as you're reasonable, you have to be reasonable. We have to be reasonable.” He also voiced confidence in Erdoğan's ability to deceive others on America's behalf, as he has done in numerous countries, especially Syria over the past 14 years. What he accomplished there is regarded by America as a tremendous achievement, as Trump and his envoy Barrack have stated. He acted as its broker, purchasing Al-Jolani at a bargain price and turning him into an American asset. Al-Jolani rejected the return of Islamic rule in Syria, launched a campaign against those calling for its establishment, and sentenced them to prison terms of up to ten years. He declared that he seeks peace and normalization with the Jewish entity and has no desire to fight it and he has confirmed it. He has never once responded to its repeated aggressions or its occupation of southern Syria. Instead he formed a joint security cell with it there and has begun taking rapid steps in that direction. Alongside joining the US-led international coalition to combat Islam.

In this way he has so far thwarted the objectives of the Syrian revolution, which arose to apply Islam, declare Jihad for the liberation of the Golan and Palestine, and eliminate American influence as embodied in the former regime under Bashar Al-Assad. In his place came someone even better for America, because he can deceive people by feigning religiosity, in the manner of his mentors Erdogan and Fidan.

It should not be said that strengthening relations among Muslim lands ought to be viewed positively and supported, for the matter has malicious objectives and is far from innocent. It serves to entrench American influence in the region, and implement its projects. It confirms the fragmentation of these countries, the perpetuation of their corrupt regimes, and the rule of governors loyal to the disbelievers. What Islam demands is the severing of the ties with America, holding fast to the rope of Allah ﷺ, and working to unify these lands, along with the rest of the Muslim world, into a single state that implements Islam, declares Jihad to liberate the occupied lands, rescues the oppressed Muslims, revives the Ummah, and distributes its wealth to its people rather than handing it over to America.

The Epstein Files and Western Civilizational Decline

By: Ustaadh Ahmed al-Khatwani

The US Congress forcing the US government and compelling its Department of Justice to release some of Epstein's files is considered the biggest civilizational scandal witnessed by Western countries in this, the 21st Century CE.

It is not merely a personal political scandal involving a president, a leader, or an official, as in the Watergate scandal or the Iran-Contra affair. Instead, it is a broad, public scandal; one that is social, political, moral, and values-based in nature.

This West, which has always falsely claimed to defend human rights, women's rights, and children's rights, has had its falsehood exposed by this resounding scandal that revealed the nature of its barbaric, inferior, and inhumane view of humanity.

The West views man only as a lifeless, emotionless, and immoral substance, subjecting him to animalistic experiments to serve a group of deviants, perverts, and sadists. It views woman only as a cheap commodity to be bought and sold in dark slave markets and brothels of insane sexual frenzy. It views the child only as a source of pleasure through torturing them, with utter brutality and cruelty.

Participating in this broad public scandal were presidents such as Trump and Clinton, princes and princesses from Britain, Sweden, and Norway, billionaires such as Bill Gates and Elon Musk, scientists such as Stephen Hawking, in addition to politicians, actors, singers, academics, businessmen, and celebrities, from every corner of the globe.

These are the elite of the West who have been led astray by their desires and delusions, and they came running to the island of the devil Jeffrey Epstein, selling their humanity and their disposition, and buying with it what they thought was their well-being and happiness, so they committed immoral acts and sins, and perpetrated crimes and transgressions.

This scandal was not limited to the violation of honor, the trafficking of underage girls, the torture and abuse of children, and the destruction of their innocence. It also encompassed the subversion of justice and the judiciary, the corruption of courts and laws, and the systematic cover-up of those crimes through legal maneuvering, and dubious plea deals for a quarter-century or more.

The American state with all its agencies and both political parties has attempted, and continues to attempt, to conceal the glaring facts of those heinous crimes, and to exonerate those implicated in them by every means available. This scandal and the crimes it produced were first uncovered in 2005, yet from that date onward they were suppressed through dubious legal deals with Jeffrey Epstein, until the scandal erupted for the first time in 2019 with his arrest, followed by his killing inside prison in an apparent effort to eliminate him, and permanently close the case with his death. Nevertheless, the Epstein files scandal erupted again due to its far-reaching ramifications, forcing the the US government, under intense public pressure, to release some of its six million documents, of which three million have so far been published in the media, while a quarter-million of the three million cleared for release were withheld from publication, under flimsy national security pretexts, in order to shield the real criminals involved.

Despite the enormity of the scandal, there are still no defendants, because those implicated continue to wield extensive power, that enables them to circumvent the law, block the release of incriminating documents, and flood the public with a massive volume of documents to distract and divert attention from reaching the truth. This, in reality, constitutes a second scandal that confirms the corruption of the courts, the judiciary, the media, and the government in America, and exposes the falsehood of what is called judicial independence and the separation of powers.

Trump has threatened politicians, courts, and media figures with exposing old scandals and naming their perpetrators should he himself be convicted over the Epstein files, declaring that he is prepared to reveal the secrets surrounding the assassinations of Kennedy and Martin Luther King as well as the events of September 11 if he faces any trial, in other words, “If I go down, I take my enemies with me", so they became afraid and colluded with him.

Thus, it appears that, despite the release of millions of documents, this will not lead to the arrest of those implicated, because they are in fact the real rulers and the ones who hold genuine power within the state.

What is most shameful and humiliating in this scandal is the part that concerns Arabs and Muslims, specifically the gifting by the Saudi businesswoman residing in the United Arab Emirates, Aziza al-Ahmadi, of three pieces of the kiswa (covering) of Al-Kaaba Ash-Sharif to Jeffrey Epstein, which were shipped from Saudi Arabia aboard British aircraft to Epstein's residence in the American state of Florida.

Although the act committed by this woman is horrific, disgraceful, and utterly reprehensible, neither Saudi Arabia nor the UAE expressed the slightest disapproval of it, nor did they comment on it, let alone conduct the necessary investigation, treating it instead as something ordinary and permissible, even though it was a monstrous act that provoked the outrage of millions of Muslims who learned of it. In reality these states are nothing but enemies of Islam and Muslims, indifferent to the feelings of Muslims or the sanctity of their holy sites.

Another side scandal in the Epstein files, which adds to his many scandals, is an intelligence scandal related to the American intelligence agencies and Mossad, as all those crimes were documented by filming, recording and printing, as the number of videos reached 200,000 videos, and the number of pictures reached 180,000 pictures, in addition to millions of printed documents. This, if it indicates anything, indicates that what happened was done with the knowledge of the intelligence agencies of countries whose main concern was not to prevent the occurrence of those crimes, or to arrest the criminals. Instead, their goal was only to blackmail the figures involved, which is what these agencies usually do with many politicians in lands of Muslims to pass the required political agenda. Recording, filming, and espionage are routine practices carried out by Western intelligence agencies to blackmail foreign politicians, and turn them into paid agents serving Western states. This resounding civilizational collapse of the West, which the Epstein files have exposed in the first quarter of the Twenty-First century CE, truly heralds the imminent demise of Western civilization and the return of Islamic civilization, which alone is capable of filling the profound vacuum of values that awaits whoever can replenish it with what is in harmony with human nature and innate disposition.

What is This Betrayal of Gaza and Its People?!

(Translated)

The forces of the Jewish entity continue to commit crimes in Gaza as part of a clear pattern of systematic violations, fabricating flimsy pretexts and justifications for the killing and destruction. They persist in actions that amount to genocide, relying on a suspicious international silence and continued impunity, without even considering the body announced to manage the situation in the Gaza Strip.

What is happening in Gaza is clear proof of the fragility of the ceasefire agreement, despite its being designed to benefit the Jewish entity, and enable them to retrieve their prisoners, both living and dead, especially after the escalation of internal protests by their families demanding Netanyahu's release. The Jewish entity has not fulfilled its commitments in the first phase, and instead of the second phase beginning with the opening of the Rafah Border Crossing, it has commenced with the continued bloodshed, the tears of mothers, and the cries of children. The attacks on people, property, and nature continue amidst the world's complete indifference and complicity, as if the truce has succeeded and the war has truly ended!

Two years and more of continuous suffering in all its forms and manifestations, while everyone watches. Those with the most concern merely express a few words of sympathy and disapproval about what is happening! It is as if the world has grown accustomed to the sight of blood, and the cries of bereaved mothers and children. And the rulers are preoccupied with preserving their thrones, by currying favor with the madman Trump and his protégé Netanyahu, at the expense of Gaza and its people.

O Islamic Ummah, O best Ummah brought forth for humanity:
Where are the armies?! Where are the ulema?! Where are the politicians?! What is this abandonment of Gaza and its people?! Why do you not rise up to overthrow these treacherous, subservient rulers and rid yourselves of their subservience and dependence?! How can you leave the people of Gaza alone to face a brutal enemy and its insatiable greed?! How can you so easily ignore the blood spilled day and night, the ceaseless groans and tears, and the deafening screams?!

Are You, the Young Men and Women, the Just Ones of This Generation?

(Translated)

يَحْمِلُ هَذَا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ كُلِّ خَلْفِ عُدُولٍ ﷺ said, «يَنْفُونَ عَنْهُ تَحْرِيفَ الْغَالِيْنَ وَأَنْتَهَا لِلْمُبْطَلِيْنَ وَتَأْوِيلَ الْجَاهِلِيْنَ» “This knowledge will be carried, within each generation, by its just ones, who will refute the distortions of the excessive, the fabrications of the liars, and the misinterpretations of the ignorant.”

Would you not like to be among the just ones of this generation? Learn your Deen from its true ulema. You will not find most of these true ulema on television or at the tables of rulers. Beware of any call that incites you to inaction, despair, or the undermining of the established principles that your forefathers, the ulema, memorized with their ink and that your Khulafa'a (Caliphs) defended with their blood.

Your Prophet ﷺ said, «لَا تُنْهِيُّوا فِي أَعْصَادِ النَّاسِ» «Do not weaken the people's resolve,» and he ﷺ said, «بَشِّرْ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةَ بِالسَّيِّءِ وَالرُّفْعَةِ» «Give glad tidings to this Ummah of glory and elevation, of Deen, victory, and empowerment on earth.»

You are not worthless, otherwise why would the West and its agents fight you and fear your unity? You are the ones who defeated America, repeatedly humiliating it in the dust of Afghanistan. You are the ones who toppled four regimes that people thought were permanent. You are the ones who make sacrifices in Palestine, and whose mujahideen have humiliated the Jews in the dust of Gaza.

How great you are, and how great your Ummah is! How great it is in its comprehensive, compelling, and convincing aqeedah, the loss of which causes the world's regimes to stumble and fall.

How great is our Ummah in its young men and women! How the West, whose aging population has grown feeble, longs to possess the vigor, energy, and vitality of our young men and women!

How great we are in the Shariah of our Lord ﷺ, which guided humanity in the past and is the only one capable today of saving us, and indeed saving America, Europe, and Russia, from the quagmire of capitalism, which even its own people suffer under.

By Allah ﷺ, you lack nothing but an Imam who is upon true divine guidance, around whom you will rally in a Bayah pledge, upon the Book of Allah ﷺ and the Sunnah of His Prophet ﷺ, transforming this earth into a land of light and justice, after it has been filled with oppression and injustice.

The Kyrgyz Regime Arrests Five Women on Charges of Belonging to Hizb ut Tahrir

(Translated)

The Kyrgyz State Committee for National Security reported the arrest of members of a women's cell affiliated with Hizb ut Tahrir in the Noken district of Jalalabad province. Law-enforcement officials reported that active members of the women's wing of the Hizb, under the guise of practical training in sewing and cutting cloth, invited young girls to work, during which process they gradually, in an unobtrusive manner, instilled Islamic ideas. The women actively participated in closed Telegram channels, were engaged in the distribution of banned literature, and discussed the establishment of a Khilafah (Caliphate) on the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic.

Ar-Rayah Newspaper: It is worth noting that these recent arrests of the five Kyrgyz women for carrying out Islamic activities, coincided with an intensification of such arrests in Russia, and this indicates that the entire field of internal security in Kyrgyzstan is under the control of the Russian Federal Security Service (FSB), to a greater degree than the control of the State Committee for National Security.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَعْنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَأَعْدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا مُّهِينًا * وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْذُنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بِعَيْرٍ مَا اكْتَسَبُوا فَقَدِ احْتَمَلُوا بُهْتَانًا وَإِثْمًا مُّبِينًا﴾ “Surely those who offend Allah and His Messenger are condemned by Allah in this world and the Hereafter. And He has prepared for them a humiliating punishment. (57) As for those who abuse believing men and women unjustifiably, they will definitely bear the guilt of slander and blatant sin. # Normalization and Investment: The Two Pillars of the New US Policy in the Arab East (Part Two)

By Ustadh Ahmad Al-Qasas*

America's plan to transform ash-Sham into an investment zone requires a significant degree of stability, and therefore, the so-called "Arab-Israeli conflict" must be resolved. Since his previous term, Trump has rapidly pursued the so-called Abraham Accords, intended to end the conflict entirely, with countries in the region recognizing the occupying entity one after another. Now, only a few countries remain that have not recognized it, and even those that haven't officially done so have begun to treat it as if it were already recognized. For example, when meetings take place at the ministerial level between the new Syrian government and the occupying state, and they agree on trade, agricultural, intelligence, security, and other forms of cooperation, this constitutes a level of normalization that goes beyond simply exchanging ambassadors.

So, everyone is racing to achieve full normalization. The most dangerous aspect of this new normalization is its attempt to gain religious legitimacy. On one hand, the fatwas of ulema of governments are vying to justify normalization with the occupying Jewish entity and submission to American dictates. On the other hand, America, the Jewish entity, and the treacherous rulers are working to promote a new Abrahamic religion that unites all inhabitants of the region — Jews, Christians, Muslims, and those who have broken away from Islam — into one community, considering them all descendants of the father of the Prophets, Ibrahim (as). It is on this basis that the recent agreements signed during Trump's first term were dubbed the Abraham Accords. It was noteworthy that the visit of the Pope — the first American to reach the papacy, a position widely believed to have been influenced by Trump — was part of the push toward normalization, a visit whose theme was peace. It was also noteworthy that the Lebanese president grasped the message, and welcomed the Pope with a speech in which he mentioned Abrahamic religions three times. He boasted that Lebanon had made the Feast of the Annunciation “a national holiday for all Lebanese communities and for all our Abrahamic religions!” He also called for “peace, hope, and reconciliation among all the children of Abraham!” He said, “This gathering can unite around the successor of Peter, representing all the children of Abraham, with all their beliefs, sacred sites, and commonalities!” With this statement, he declared his adherence to the Abrahamic project. It was both painful and shameful that the Quran reciter, at the meeting between the leaders of the Lebanese religious communities and the Pope, chose verses containing the words “salaam (peace)” or “silm (peace),” to send a message that “we, too, want peace!”

The danger of today’s peace plans surpasses that of previous ones in that they do not merely speak of the need to end wars, destruction, and conflict. Instead, this peace is intended to be legitimized under the banner of all the region’s inhabitants living together as one people, all as “children of Abraham.” What makes this even more dangerous is that America, along with the occupying power, is preparing the region to transform into entities similar to the occupying Jewish entity, becoming a collection of small sectarian, religious, or ethnic entities. Alongside a Jewish entity, there would be a Christian entity, a Shia entity, a Druze entity, an Alawite entity, a Kurdish entity, a Sunni entity, and so on. These entities are bound together by an economic tie that America controls, through its grip on the various components of the regional economy: scientific minds, labor, financial capital, consumer markets, energy resources, communication and transportation networks, air and sea ports, and official institutions that legally grant contracts to American transnational investment companies, thus dominating the entire region’s economy. As for the current ruling authorities, and those that may emerge later with the possible formation of new entities, their primary concern will be preserving their sectarian and factional gains, guarding the nationalistic borders of bloodshed that are rapidly being established, vying for control of border areas, and polarizing the masses along sectarian and religious lines by instilling fear of other groups. They will resort to the American patron to mediate between them, as is currently the case, in addition to relying on the relative financial prosperity resulting from the job opportunities created by the reconstruction efforts, managed by the American master. America and its protégé, the occupying Jewish entity, hope that the Muslim majority, with its revolutionary and Jihad past, will turn its attention to the struggle for survival, improving its material standard of living, and taking its place in the reconstruction and development process, under the illusion of rebuilding the country, restoring its economic strength, and reclaiming its rightful place among nations. In reality, however, it is playing its assigned role within the American regional economic structure, of which the Jewish entity will be the favored member. They will be like the hen between Stalin's feet, which rushed to pluck the grain he threw, after plucking out its feathers and drawing blood, and making it writhe in pain, as recounted in the famous story about him instructing the pillars of his power on how to subdue and domesticate peoples. This policy was expressed quite clearly by the US Special Envoy for Syria to Syria, the impudent ambassador Tom Barrack, in his answer to some journalists' questions, on Friday 26 September 2025, ““There is no Middle East. We know that. There's tribes, there's villages, the nation state was created by the British and the French.. but, the Middle East doesn't work that way It starts with an individual, then family, then village, then tribe, then community, then religion. Lastly, its what this nation is. So, when I say it is an illusion to think that somehow we are going to get 27 different nations, that have a 110 different ethnic groups, to align with political concepts. What will they align with? Make my life and my children's life better.”

This is the vision America desires for this region, the very heart of the Muslim World: ash-Sham, abode to Al-Masjid Al-Aqsa and the base of the Umayyad and Ayyubid Caliphates; Iraq, the seat of the Abbasid and Seljuk Caliphates; and Egypt, the seat of the Mamluks. The aim is to transform these regions into societies preoccupied only with the pursuit of a comfortable life, abandoning the concepts of Jihad, the ruling governance of Islamic Shariah Law, the authority of the jama'ah (community) of Muslims, and the unifying Khilafah (Caliphate). It is no coincidence that slogans like, "We have been killed, slaughtered, and displaced so many, we have suffered so much, and it is time for us to catch our breath and rest!" are being promoted. The truth is that America's plan for the region does not want us to catch our breath. Instead, America seeks to open only one door for us: the door of living under its political, economic, security, and military dominance, in exchange for a meager existence. It embarked on this project by obligating the region's regimes to military, security, and economic agreements, the latest of which was the Syrian state's entry into the international coalition against "terrorism" and the joint American-"Israeli"-Syrian declaration on initiating security, intelligence, trade, and agricultural cooperation agreements.

The Situation in Sudan Between War and Ceasefires

By Ustadh Abdul-Khalil Abdoun

After about a week since the Sudanese army, along with the forces supporting it, lifted the siege imposed by the Rapid Support Forces (RSF) and their ally, the Sudan People's Liberation Movement–North (SPLM-N), on the city of Al-Dilling, it succeeded in breaking a similar siege on Kadugli, the capital of South Kordofan State.

The army launched a military operation to reach Kadugli, and fought fierce battles against the SPLM-N and the RSF along the Kadugli–Al-Dilling road. This enabled it to take control of the towns of Al-Samasim, Al-Kargal, and Al-Dishoul, before linking up with a force coming from Kadugli in the town of Al-Kuwaik, which it controls, in the evening, and then entering the city.

The Rapid Support Forces and their ally, the SPLM-N, had imposed a siege on the city since the early months following the outbreak of the war on 15 April 2023. Kadugli holds particular importance, as it is the capital of South Kordofan State, and its administrative center, in addition to its geographical location, which makes it a key junction linking the Kordofan states with the borders of South Sudan.

And on 26 January 2026, the army succeeded in lifting the siege on the city of Al-Dilling, the second-largest city in the state after Kadugli, following a siege that had lasted for nearly two years, which had been imposed by the Rapid Support Forces and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement–North. Al-Dilling represents a key link between Kadugli and North Kordofan, and is considered an important corridor for the movement of people and goods.

Since October 2025, the three states of the Kordofan region, North, West, and South, have been witnessing clashes between the Sudanese army and the Rapid Support Forces, within the context of the ongoing war, that has continued since 2023.

In statements made during his visit to the headquarters of Sudan's official television in Omdurman, the Chairman of the Transitional Sovereignty Council, Al-Burhan, said, "We say to the Sudanese people: congratulations on opening the road to Kadugli, and congratulations to our people there on the arrival of the armed forces to them. Our forces will reach any place in the country."

He conditioned any ceasefire on the withdrawal of the Rapid Support Forces from the cities, explaining, "We welcome any call for a truce provided it is not exploited to strengthen the enemy or allow the militia to catch its breath again." He added that any call for peace and an end to the war would be responded to, affirming, "We will not sell the blood of the Sudanese people or squander their rights."

Al-Burhan also directed a message to the people of the city of El-Fasher, stating that the armed forces are coming to them, with the support of the joint forces, the mobilized volunteers, and the popular resistance.

The recapture of Al-Dilling, Kadugli, or any other area serves to distract people from the reality of this ongoing war, which was ignited by the United States, with the help of its two agents, the generals Al-Burhan and Dagalo, in order to sideline Britain's men, entrench America's men in power, and proceed with the implementation of a plan to fragment Sudan. There is no military resolution capable of ending this accursed war. Instead, both sides are merely playing a game of advance and retreat.

It appears that the United States has begun moving toward arrangements to reap the fruits of this war. A press statement was issued by the Office of the Deputy First Spokesperson of the U.S. Department of State, Pigott, on 4 February 2026, stating that on 3 February 2026 the United States hosted an event with allies and partners, during which pledges were made to provide USD 1.5 billion in new humanitarian assistance contributions.

According to the press release of the US embassy in Sudan on 5 February 2026, "The United States invited more than 20 donors to the Donald J. Trump Institute of Peace where we announced $200 million in additional support through the Sudan Humanitarian Fund (SHF) alongside generous contributions from other donors. While we remain proud of America's unmatched generosity, President Trump has made it clear that other nations must also shoulder a greater share of the burden for this lifesaving work. We applaud the significant contributions to the SHF and its critical humanitarian response activities from regional and international partners, particularly the United Arab Emirates, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Kuwait, Egypt, Chad, the United Kingdom, Norway, among others."

The press release added, "We look forward to the April 15 meeting in Berlin and for more countries to join this important humanitarian effort."

It also noteworthy that Massad Boulos, U.S. Senior Advisor for Arab and African Affairs, indicated that there is a document currently available which is believed to be acceptable to both parties to the conflict in Sudan, and is expected to lead to a humanitarian truce. Speaking during an event on Sudan at the headquarters of the United States Institute of Peace (USIP) in Washington, he added that the United Nations has put in place a mechanism whereby fighters from both sides of the conflict in Sudan would withdraw from certain areas, allowing humanitarian aid to flow.

On 3 February 2026 further stated that the peace agreement between the parties in Sudan would be submitted to the UN Security Council after being approved by the Quad, adding, "It's likely that we can get this accepted by the two parties, take it to the Security Council...We can also take it to the Board of Peace very shortly after that... Of course, their current focus is on Gaza. But why not? I know that the Board is interested in looking at Sudan and helping with Sudan.... It doesn't in any way affect the UN or the UN Security Council."

Boulos, who is known for repeatedly announcing anticipated truces in nearly all his statements, had called on the parties in Sudan to accept without preconditions the US plan backed by the Quad countries. The plan is based on imposing a three-month humanitarian truce, as a prelude to a permanent ceasefire, which in turn would pave the way for a nine-month transitional period. However, according to the US envoy, the plan ran into rejection from both sides.

Trump also states from time to time that his administration is working hard to end the ongoing war in Sudan. For example, in a speech he delivered during his participation in the traditional National Prayer Breakfast in Washington, held annually on the first Thursday of February, he affirmed that his administration has become very close to ending the war in Sudan. He claims that the conflict in Sudan will be the ninth war that he brings to an end.

This futile war that is destroying Sudan, and which has witnessed the largest displacement in the world, would never have occurred, were it not for the treachery of the rulers, who accepted that Sudan become an arena for the plans of the colonialist, disbelieving West. These criminals ignite the war whenever they wish, and halt it whenever they choose. The people of Sudan will not live a dignified and secure life, in which they obtain their full rights, except under a state that has no ties whatsoever to foreign powers, derives its strength from Allah ﷺ, sweeps these agents from the seats of power, and causes these disbelievers to forget the whisperings of Satan through Jihad in the Path of Allah ﷺ.

Allah ﷺ said, ﴿لِمُثْلِ هَذَا فَلَيَعْمَلُ الْعَامِلُونَ﴾. “For such honor all those who do good deeds, must do good deeds.” [TMQ Surah As-Saffat 61]

Where Will the Ummah, In All Its Segments, Go in the Face of This Abandonment of the Blessed Land and Its People?!

(Translated)

Here is Palestine is burning before the eyes of an entire Ummah, while its rulers work to extinguish the embers of anger within it, claiming that a truce is coming, that the war is over, and that Gaza will be opened wide to aid, so that the Ummah forgets the truth: that there is no solution for Palestine except by cleansing it of the filth of the Jews!

Today is like yesterday; the cries of the free women of Palestine still echo across the earth: "O Mu'tasim!" Their children still shed tears of sorrow for the abandonment by the Ummah and its armies, pouring out their grievances to Allah, appealing to all who can help them: "To Allah we turn for justice, and to Allah we complain." Al-Aqsa still groans under the bayonets of the Jews who desecrate it with their feet, digging up its foundations and preventing Allah's worshippers from reaching its courtyards. All those in the Blessed Land and within it declare openly that the enemy would not have reached its current position were it not for the collusion and conspiracy of the regimes for more than eighty years.

Where will the Ummah go, with its soldiers and men, its ulema and politicians, its educated and its common people, after abandoning the Blessed Land and its people, when the world and all that is in it has closed in on them, and its vastness has become constricted for its inhabitants? Where will the Ummah go when it sees its rulers inflicting upon the people of Palestine what an enemy inflicts upon his enemy? Where will the Ummah go if its fire remains unlit, and the cauldrons of jihad do not ignite in its hearts? And where will it go if it does not overthrow those who have abandoned the Blessed Land, betrayed its people, and delivered them to an enemy who has no regard for any covenant or obligation? Where will the Ummah go before Allah ﷺ regarding all of this?!

To the Sincere Sons of Our Ummah and Its Armies

(Translated)

O Muslims! The hardship, oppression, and tyranny you are experiencing today are not an inevitable fate, nor are they trials without a way out. Instead, they are the fruit of a corrupt system imposed upon you, a system that has no connection whatsoever to your Islam. Your true salvation will not come through changing faces and figures, nor through patching up or reforming the system, but through a sincere return to the Book of Allah ﷺ and the Sunnah of His Messenger ﷺ, and through diligent, earnest, sincere, and devoted work with Hizb ut Tahrir to establish the comprehensive Islamic state: the Second Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood.

O sincere soldiers of the armies of the lands of Islam: You are the sons of this long-standing Ummah, its swords sheathed by your treacherous rulers and commanders, at the behest of their masters in the disbelieving West. Your true purpose is to be its protectors. Know that your honor lies neither in guarding the Sykes-Picot nationalistic borders, drawn by colonialism between your lands, borders that shattered your unity and scattered your ranks, nor in protecting treacherous regimes subservient to your enemies. Instead, your honor lies in supporting the Deen of Allah ﷺ, and standing with your Ummah to restore the sultan (governing authority) of Islam. History is opening its pages today for those who will inscribe their names in the annals of honor alongside Umar (ra), Saladin, Qutuz, and Abdul Hamid, or in the annals of shame and disgrace alongside Abu Righal, Ibn al-Alqami, and the rulers of the current oppressive era. The memory of the destruction of the Khilafah (Caliphate), which still looms over us, is not meant for lamenting ruins, but for rousing spirits, renewing resolve, and striving diligently. The Khilafah (Caliphate) only vanished to return, and it will return soon, by the Permission of Allah ﷺ, as a Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood.

A Heartfelt Cry from Occupied Kashmir!

By Ustadh Mohammad Abdullah, Occupied Kashmir

As Pakistan prepares for the annual theatrics of February 5th Kashmir Solidarity Day, rehearsing anthems and forming human chains, it must look past the performative noise to the deafening silence of the Kashmir Valley. This “normalcy” depicted in the media and intelligence briefings is not peace. It is the quiet of a prison ward enforced by a criminal administrative siege that targets the body, mind, and Iman of the entire population of Occupied Kashmir. While the leadership of Pakistan sings of the “jugular vein,” the reality on the ground is a systematic erasure, where the dead are robbed of their graves, and the living are robbed of their voices, waiting not for solidarity, but for military intervention and mobilization of the armed forces.

The reality of “stabilization” and “normalcy” in Kashmir is the silence of a graveyard, enforced by the most draconian administrative siege in modern history. The Hindu State has moved beyond the military occupation of territory; it is now engaged in the forensic dismantling of a people, targeting their bodies, their minds, their economy, and their Deen. Since the unilateral annexation on August 5, 2019, and surrender by the leadership of Pakistan, the “Naya Kashmir (New Kashmir)” being built is not a development project. It is a settler-colonial enterprise designed to erase the Islamic identity of the Kashmir Valley. The data is irrefutable, yet the leadership of Pakistan choose to ignore it, or exploit it for their own convenience, and petty political objectives. Since 2019's betrayal, Kashmir has been caged - 900,000 troops watching every breath, graves swallowing dissenters, jails echoing with torture. Tens of thousands have been martyred since the 1990s, rapes in Kunan-Poshpura staining the honor and enforced disappearances wiping out the ties of families. These have all become just numbers, with little relevance for they are Muslim names, and faces of Muslims in Kashmir —the cheapest blood in a world that averts its gaze.

After 2019 annexation and betrayal Kashmir lived through 550 days of communication blackout - a collective punishment designed to break the common psychology of resistance. The legal system has been weaponized into a tool of permanent incarceration. The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA) ensures that the "process is the punishment." With a conviction rate of less than 0.6%, thousands are rotting in jails not because they are guilty, but to break their spirit. The Public Safety Act (PSA) creates a "revolving door" detention system, where men and women are released after years of jail, only to be re-arrested at the prison gate, just because of presumption of the authorities. Inside these prisons, torture remains endemic. The bodies of young Muslims are drilled and electrocuted - not to extract information, but to break the will. They are tortured to death in custody, or in fake encounters, for medals and promotions. It is not an anomaly. It is the standard operating procedure of a communal army protected by the absolute immunity of the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act (AFSPA).

The Hindu occupation even fights the dead. It seems to fear the martyr more than the living mujahid. Since 2020, the bodies of those killed in encounters are not returned to their families. Instead of resting in ancestral graveyards, these youth are buried in remote, unmarked graves in Boniyar, hundreds of kilometers away. When mothers like Parveena Ahangar - the founder and chairperson of Association of Parents of Disappeared Persons (APDP) try to document the disappeared, their offices are raided and files seized. In this 2New Kashmir," even remembering the dead is a crime against the state.

The Hindu run administration installed the Indian national emblem inside Dargah Hazratbal, an act of idolatrous dominance intended to humiliate the believers. The Jamia Masjid in Srinagar remains padlocked on Fridays, the sermon silenced, the religious gathering prohibited, sermons and speeches scrutinized, Ulama and Imams profiled. This is not "counter-insurgency." This is their hatred for Muslims and a war on Islam.

The "Bajwa Doctrine" and the Illusion of Peace: While the Muslim population of Kashmir was being suffocated under the weight of domicile laws and religious desecration, the leadership of Pakistan was busy pivoting. In March 2021, General Bajwa declared a shift from "geo-politics to geo-economics," speaking of "burying the past" to unlock trade. "The past" he wanted to bury is Kashmir. He tried to prioritize the connectivity with Central Asia over the slaughter of Muslim brothers. It is not a statesmanship; it is a shopkeeper mentality of a hypocrite that trades goods over the bodies of the people. The “gray list” of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) and the conditions of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) have dictated Pakistan’s Kashmir policy. The liberation of Kashmir was traded for financial stability. Despite the pride of Pakistan being a nuclear power, the Hindu State was not deterred from the annexation of Kashmir. The response of a nuclear Muslim state was reduced to a “30-minute protest” — a masterclass in performative politics designed to give the angry public a ritual, while ensuring no tangible steps were taken. Diplomats issued statements every Friday, the OIC passed resolutions, and then all went back to their parties, while the Muslims of Kashmir see all these theatrics in silence, despair, with pelleted eyes, from cages of homes, torturing prisons, and silent graves. Now on February 5th, while Pakistan celebrates Kashmir Solidarity Day, it has also become just a ritual, just another holiday. Patriotic songs are played, whilst human chains are formed.

The Defiance of the Abandoned Prisoner: Despite abandonment, and despite the brute force of the occupation, the spirit of the Muslim of Kashmir remains the only liberated matter in this subjugated land. The occupier Hindu regime believed that by revoking Article 370 and importing a “steel frame” of Hindu bureaucrats to rule, they would “Hinduize” the territory. They have failed by their own submissions. In May 2025, during the short four-day war between the believers of Pakistan's armed forces and the army of the Hindu State, the "roof-top referendum" saw thousands of unarmed Muslims of Kashmir cheering for the warplanes of Pakistan Air Force, making Dua for their victory. They celebrate the victory of Pakistan from cricket field to battlefield, in rejection of the occupier's identity. The 5th February 2026, Kashmir Solidarity Day will be no different from the past theatrics, but there are sincere sons of this Ummah who truly care for the Ummah of Prophet Mohammad ﷺ and their accountability before Allah ﷺ. There are people amongst the people of military power who really want to act. So, this is not a call for the military general who plays golf with western diplomats and talks of "strategic restraint," but for the officers who bow their heads in sujood and remember their Lord, His ﷺ accountability, the day of judgment, and remember the oath of Jihad.

O Sincere Officers in the Pakistani Army! You are the inheritors of a legacy that does not recognize these colonialist nationalistic borders. When Muhammad bin Qasim stood on the shores of Sindh, he did not wait for a resolution from any Taghut (non-Islamic authority), so how does the criminal UN Security Council have weight for you? Muhammad bin Qasim did not check the "economic indicators." He led an army of the Khilafah (Caliphate) because Muslim women cried out at the tyranny of Raja Dahir. Today, four million of your Muslim sisters in Kashmir are crying out. Allah ﷺ said, ﴿وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالْمُسْتَضْعَفِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ﴾ الرَّجَالِ وَالنِّسَاءِ وَالْوُلُدَانِ الَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا مِنْ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ الطَّالِمِ أَهْلُهَا ﴿١٠﴾ “وَاجْعَلْ لَنَا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا وَاجْعَلْ لَنَا مِنْ لَدُنْكَ نَصِيرًا” [And what is [the matter] with you that you fight not in the cause of Allah and for the oppressed among men, women, and children who say, ‘Our Lord, take us out of this city of oppressive people and appoint for us from Yourself a protector and appoint for us from Yourself a helper?’] [TMQ Surah An-Nisaa:75]. Your current leadership — the Ruwaybidah (incompetent) rulers and commanders — have compromised. They have accepted the “status quo” dictated by Washington. They fear the “grey list” of the FATF more than they fear the judgment of Allah. They have made you the guardians of colonial borders. They have turned the “sword of Islam” into a shield for the American regional order. For seventy years, the leadership of Pakistan - civilian and military alike - has repeated the slogan: “Kashmir is the jugular vein of Pakistan.” You treated it as poetry. On April 23, 2025, when New Delhi placed the Indus Waters Treaty in “abeyance” following the Pahalgam escalation, you learned that it is actually a matter of life and death. Thus, these rulers have traded the “jugular vein” for a “trade route,” forgetting that a body without a jugular vein cannot trade; it can only bleed to death.

O Sincere Officers of Pakistan Army! The “status quo” is a lie. The “peace process” is a trap and the peace they promote is the peace of the graveyard. History will not record that Pakistan lost Kashmir on the battlefield. It will record that Pakistan surrendered Kashmir in the backrooms of diplomacy, in exchange for loans and diplomatic favors. When you stand before your Lord, none of you will be asked about your rank or salary, but about why you remained silent when your brothers cried out for help. Look at your uniform. It is not a costume for parades. It is a shroud you wear to protect the Ummah. Do not let history record that when the “jugular vein” was cut, you were busy saluting the executioner. Tear up the “Washington Policy.” Smash the “Bajwa Doctrine” that values trade over blood. You have the military power. You have the noble Deen. You have the Shariah obligation. You will not meet your Creator with a “policy paper” as a defense in your hand. Meet Allah ﷺ with the dust from marching in Jihad in the Path of Allah ﷺ on your boots.

The Ruwaybidah agent leadership have chained the loins of this Ummah. Hizb ut Tahrir has been calling you again and again to break these chains of humiliation and give nussrah (military power) to its sincere leadership to re-establish the Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly-Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood. You hold the keys to power; do not use them to lock the prison of the Ummah, but to open the gates of victory. Be the Ansar of this century and restore the shield (junnah) of the Khilafah that our beloved Prophet ﷺ gave glad tidings of.

This is a sincere cry from an occupied Islamic land.

O Soldiers of Pakistan: Do not Surrender Palestine Under the Command of a Crusader General, But Rise Up for Its Liberation Under the Banner of a Khaleefah Rashid (Rightly Guided Caliph)

(Translated)

O army of Pakistan, O ulema of Pakistan, O media and political figures in Pakistan: Participation in Trump's "Board of Peace" means permanently entrenching Zionist and crusader occupation over the sacred land of Palestine under the patronage of crusader leaders and playing with the blood of its Muslims. Trump's so-called Board of Peace is, in reality, a "Board of War and Occupation." Trump's son-in-law Jared Kushner, who is part of this board, stated in an interview at Harvard University on 15 February 2024 that the idea of a Palestinian state is an “extremely bad idea,” which, according to him, would amount to “rewarding an act of terrorism.” As for Tony Blair, one of the key architects of the war against Islam, he said on 29 September 2025: “President Trump has presented a bold and intelligent plan... which will ensure Israel’s complete and lasting security.” Regarding the commander of Trump’s International Stabilization Force (ISF), Major General Jasper Jeffers, he has previously served during his long and brutal career in Operation Iraqi Freedom (Iraq), Operation Enduring Freedom (Afghanistan), and Operation Resolute Support (Afghanistan). Any Muslim troops sent to Gaza, whether from Pakistan or Indonesia, will be under the command of this very general. This is the reality of participation in this colonial project, which our rulers are presenting as a diplomatic victory for Pakistan. If only there were an animal sold in the marketplace called “shame,” which could be bought and presented to these rulers.

O Pakistan Armed Forces! The Shariah obligation upon Muslim armies to liberate Palestine has existed since 1948, and it has not ended. Nearly eight decades have passed, during which continuous chapters of betrayal have been written, including betrayal of Gaza. Do not set foot on the Blessed Land of Palestine under the command of any American crusader general. You must ensure that you advance towards the blessed land under the leadership of a rightly guided Khalifah (Caliph), through whom Muslims are protected and behind whom Muslims fight. The Prophet ﷺ said: «إِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَاحٌ يُقَاتَلُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِ وَيُتَقَىْ بِهِ» “Indeed, the Imam (Khalifah) is a shield; fighting is done behind him, and protection is sought through him.”

America's Crimes and Deceit Against the People of Syria

By Ustadh Muhammad Saeed Al-Aboud

It is no secret to observers and those engaged in politics, that Syria, since the beginning of the era of the late Hafez Al-Assad, became subordinate to America. It was America that facilitated Bashar Al-Assad's accession to power as a successor to his father. Madeleine Albright, then the US Secretary of State, attended the theatrical transfer of power to Bashar and no other world leader attended besides her, and she declared from Damascus that the transfer of power had taken place in a calm and smooth manner, expressing America's endorsement of this transition and its support for Bashar.

Moreover, America's crimes in Syria are evident in its protection of the Al-Assad regime and its support for it in suppressing Muslims during the Hama events in the 1980s, as well as its support and sponsorship of Bashar Al-Assad in crushing the Syrian uprising during the Arab Spring. The statements of its officials were timid, merely for show and deception, such as when Barack Obama declared that Bashar had lost his legitimacy and must step down without any real pressure to speak of. On the contrary, America was secretly providing him with money and time to eliminate the Syrian uprising. Bashar used chemical weapons several times against Muslims in Syria, which indicates that he felt safe from punishment. What followed was a theatrical response when Trump ordered strikes on some runways of the Tiyas (T-4) Air Base, in addition to certain sanctions that did not affect the regime but instead burned the Syrian people. This is aside from America's mobilization of our enemies and those who hypocritically claimed friendship with us, to smother the revolution and undermine it.

This is all that America has done openly regarding the criminality of the Al-Assad regime, while secretly supporting it by instructing Iran and its militias to enter Syria and fight alongside the regime, and by allowing and coordinating with Russia to support and protect the regime when Iran failed to crush the revolution.

The regime has continued, under America's protection and sponsorship, for fourteen years, killing and detaining the people of al-Sham, destroying their cities and towns, and displacing them, without fearing any real punishment especially when compared to the protection America affords to small ethnic groups, after inciting them to rebellion, and its use of its forward military base in the heart of the lands of Muslims, - the Jewish entity - to bomb the country's infrastructure. This also includes the use of the sanctions of the Caesar Act, which should have ended with the fall of the Al-Assad regime, yet America has kept them as a sword hanging over the Syrian people, in order to pressure them into accepting the new administration's concessions on political, security, and economic fronts.

Among the worst practices America employs, to impose its influence and entrench its dominance over Syria, is exploiting the issue of small ethnic groups, as a pretext to impose its will. It has been stirring them up behind the scenes to sow the seeds of Syria's partition and to create a form of hybrid governance, between federalism and administrative decentralization, keeping the country in a state of paralysis, and perpetual conflict. This enables America to manage the conflict, and intervene in every minor and major matter through its special envoy Tom Barrack and its emissaries from the US State Department and US Congress, while at the same time falsely and deceptively claiming to support the country's unity and stability.

The true enemy of the Syrian people, in particular, and of the Islamic Ummah in general, is America. Its covert incitement of small ethnic groups, and its overt protection of their rebellion - while refraining from imposing calm and integration upon them despite being fully capable of doing so with a simple directive - clearly indicates, beyond any doubt, that it is manipulating the fate of the Syrian people, indeed of the peoples of the entire world. It imposes upon them whomever it wishes as rulers, then removes them once they lose the ability to serve its interests. To rely on America is political suicide and one of the gravest crimes against the Ummah and the Deen.

The Shariah obligation in the face of America's aggression against Syria, its destruction of the country, and the displacement of its people at the hands of its agent Bashar, is to work to uproot its influence from Syria and from the lands of the Muslims, to expel its tools, and to warn against cooperation, alliance, or accommodation with it. As for relying on it, and seeking its approval, in the hope of stabilizing rule and achieving prosperity, that is like seeking grapes from thorns. Recently, much has been said about the policy of Ahmad al-Shara, the Syrian president for the transitional phase, and his statements that align with America's inclinations, including his remarks to Christiane Amanpour, CNN's chief international correspondent, at the Doha Forum in Qatar, in which he strove hard to distance himself from the charge of terrorism - despite the fact that America's agreements with regimes to fight “terrorism” are in reality aimed at fighting Islam and its rulings.

Silence regarding the concessions made by the current administration toward America, and granting space to those who make such concessions, is a violation of the Shariah Law of Allah ﷺ. It leads the country toward further fragmentation, conflict, loss, and political, security, and economic instability. Indeed, it will inevitably result in the domination of internal forces that are hostile to Islam in both heart and substance. Justifying these concessions, promoting them, and fabricating misleading fatwas to legitimize them is a dangerous slippery slope and a sweeping evil whose harm will not be limited to the current administration alone, but will extend to the people of Syria and all of their sacrifices.

That which decisively resolves the conflict, ends the discord, and cuts off the hand of American intervention is the implementation of the Shariah Law of Allah ﷺ, Glorified and Exalted, Who says, ﴿وَلَنْ يَجْعَلَ اللَّهُ لِلْكَافِرِينَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ سَبِيلًا﴾ “And Allah will never grant the disbelievers a way over the believers.” [TMQ Surah An-Nisa 141]

The Shariah Law of Allah ﷺ is what gives everyone their due right. Once non-Muslims experience the mercy and justice of Islam, they will calm down; indeed, they will enter the Deen of Allah ﷺ in multitudes. To implement the Shariah Law of Allah ﷺ, the ruler must seek the support of the Muslims at home - and they are not few - and throughout the world, and they will come to him in their millions, instead of relying on criminal disbelievers such as America and those allied with it.

Leaders must also be prepared to sacrifice life, wealth, and authority, as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, «لَوْ وَضَعُوا الشَّمْسَ فِي

يَمِينِي وَالْقَمَرَ فِي شِمَالِي عَلَى أَنْ أَتَرْكَ هَذَا الْأَمْرَ حَتَّى يُظْهِرَهُ اللَّهُ أَوْ أَهْلِكَ فِيهِ مَا «If they were to place the sun in my right hand and the moon in my left on the condition that I abandon this matter, I would not abandon it until Allah makes it prevail or I perish therein.”

Yes, this is the Methodology of the Prophethood in establishing the Deen and implementing the Shariah Law of the Lord of the worlds - not submission and concessions to the enemies of Allah ﷺ, who scheme against the Ummah night and day, as Allah ﷺ says, ﴿لَا يَرْقِبُونَ فِي مُؤْمِنٍ إِلَّا وَلَا ذِمَّةً وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُعْتَدُونَ﴾. “They do not honour the bonds of kinship or treaties with the believers. It is they who are the transgressors.” [TMQ Surah At-Tawbah 10]

Pakistan Baloch Insurgency: When Mongol Lessons Meet America's Plan to Redraw the Muslim World

By Abdul Majeed Bhatti

In late January and early February 2026, militants from the Balochistan Liberation Army (BLA) launched coordinated attacks across Quetta, Noshki, Gwadar and other districts, targeting security installations, highways and workers' colonies. After roughly forty hours of fighting, Pakistani officials said 145 militants, 31 civilians and 17 security personnel were killed — one of the deadliest episodes in years.

What appears as a low-intensity insurgency is fast morphing into geopolitical game stretching from the Levant to the Arabian Sea, with China, Russia, India and the Jewish entity all in the frame. At play is America's grand ambition to reshape the Muslim world to strengthen the Jewish entity and India, and at the same time counter China and Russia. In widely cited remarks, retired U.S. General Wesley Clark recalled being shown a Pentagon memo after 9/11 outlining a plan to "take out seven countries in five years": Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and, finally, Iran. Two decades later, the US is contemplating the balkanization of Iran - thereby sacrificing the regime that has faithfully served Washington since the revolution- to achieve new strategic goals.

In fact, in 2006, retired U.S. Army Lt. Col. Ralph Peters published his controversial "Blood Borders" map, sketching a "better" Middle East by breaking large, unwieldy states into ethnically and sectarian-aligned mini-states.

Today America's pressure on Iran and the constant fires in Balochistan, suggest that Washington could be moving into its next phase to redraw the old European colonialist borders by breaking existing power structures and giving birth to new countries. For American strategists, the concern is not only Iran's nuclear programme or Pakistan's instability; it is the possibility that, together with China, they could form a continuous energy and a trade infrastructure spine from the Gulf to East Turkestan (Xinjiang). A stable Iran selling large volumes of oil and gas to China, and a coherent Pakistan moving those flows through pipelines and ports linked to CPEC, would give Beijing an overland route that bypasses sea lanes under the control of America. By contrast, a balkanized Iran and an insurgency-wracked Pakistan are unreliable corridors for energy imports to China and severely undermine China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI).

Seen alongside the U.S. backed removal of Maduro in Venezuela and Trump's push to control Greenland, Balochistan's insurgency illuminates Washington's grand strategy. American dominance over Venezuelan oil, and Greenland's rare earths and critical minerals blocks China's energy and resource access in the Americas. Coupled with new security ties across the GIUK Gap (Greenland-Iceland-UK), this creates choke points to counter Chinese and Russian Arctic Sea routes, fortifying America's hemispheric fortress.

There is also a Russian subplot. A weakened Iran and a Pakistan consumed by insurgency and economic distress converts Russia's southern flank — from the Caucasus through Central Asia to the Gulf — into a sea of volatility. Such instability could rapidly engulf Turkey and could fuel independence movements to establish Kurdish and Balouch states amongst others. This nightmare scenario is likely to force the Kremlin to divert military resources from the Ukrainian front to quell the unrest in the South, which provides NATO with the opportunity to gain the upper hand and push for a ceasefire on America's terms.

Another important piece in America's strategy is the quiet triangulation linking the Jewish entity, the Gulf countries and India. Over the past decade, the Jewish entity has moved from discreet contacts to open security, intelligence and technology partnerships with certain Gulf countries and India. Furthermore, emerging schemes like the India–Middle East–Europe corridor are marketed as connectivity projects but function as partial alternatives to China's BRI. By empowering the Jewish entity as Washington's primary Middle East enforcer—tasked with policing the region—and elevating India as a robust counterweight to China across the subcontinent and broader Eurasia, the U.S. is strategically cementing its long-term dominance over these critical geopolitical theaters.

Trump seeks to leverage this geopolitical reengineering to prevent China from fully decoupling its economy from the dollar system, ensuring continued international trade settlements flow through SWIFT. Simultaneously, Washington aims to trade America's raw material dominance—securing Venezuelan oil and other hemispheric resources—for uninterrupted Chinese supplies of Rare Earth Elements (REEs) essential to U.S. industry and military needs, buying time to rebuild its own REE production verticals.

From this strategic vantage, U.S. war drums against Iran beat louder, paired with overt support for Baloch resistance spanning both sides of the Iran-Pakistan border. Some neoconservative circles now advocate for Iran's total dismantling, echoing what the Mongols did 800 years ago—complete and utter annihilation, leaving nothing but scorched earth in its place. Back then, the Seljuk, Khwarazmian, and Delhi Sultanates failed to transcend their rivalries, allowing the Mongols to annihilate the Khwarazmians, subjugate the Seljuks, sack Baghdad, and leave the Delhi Sultanate critically weakened and isolated.

Today, Turkey, Iran, and Pakistan cannot afford that same fatal error—lest they invite a modern repeat of history's merciless verdict and enslave their people to American-Jewish-Hindu Khanates.

We Pay for Our Clinging to Oppressive States with Blood, Humiliation, Poverty, and Occupation

(Translated)

The issue facing the Muslim World is not lack of wealth or money, but instead political decision-making and the unification of these failed, artificially created entities into a single state that possesses its own resources and decision-making authority, a state free from poverty, humiliation, displacement, occupation, and the anxieties that weigh heavily on people day and night.

Clinging to the nationalistic borders of these entities costs us blood, humiliation, poverty, and occupation. Any call to perpetuate these nationalistic borders is a prelude to further division and an invitation to future fragmentation. Any project under the guise of nationalism, ethnicity, sectarianism, or a doctrine that is based on nationalistic borders drawn by colonialist powers is political suicide, and an act of subservience to the West, whether intentional or not. There is no escape from this disastrous cycle for the Muslim World except by first eradicating these nationalistic borders from the minds of Muslims, and then from their lands. This noble and great Ummah, with its Deen, will not rise again except through a single state: the Second Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood, which will unify its scattered parts and restore it as one Ummah, without artificial nationalistic borders, carrying a Risaalah message of mercy and light to all humanity. Allah ﷺ said, ﴿مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ فَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ جَمِيعاً إِلَيْهِ يَصْعُدُ الْكَلْمُ الطَّيِّبُ وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ يَرْفَعُهُ وَالَّذِينَ يَمْكُرُونَ السَّيِّئَاتَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَكْرُ أُولَئِكَ هُوَ يَبُورُ﴾. “Whoever desires honor, then to Allah belongs all honor. To Him ascends good speech, and righteous deeds raises it. But those who plot evil deeds will have a severe punishment, and the plotting of those will come to nothing.” [TMQ Surah Fatir: 10].

The Action Required of Muslims Now, Without Delay

(Translated)

It has become clear that the root of the problem and the source of the affliction lies in these ruling regimes. Therefore, the cure is evident and an inescapable Shariah obligation for everyone: to overthrow these regimes and establish the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood in their place. This can be summarized in two points:

Firstly: Adopting the Khilafah (Caliphate) project. All sincere individuals from all segments of the Ummah — groups, ulema, sheikhs, businessmen, and influential — must adopt the Khilafah (Caliphate) project advocated by Hizb ut Tahrir, consider the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood as their objective, and call upon the armies to grant Nussrah (military support) to the Hizb.

Secondly: Those sincere individuals with power and influence must support Hizb ut Tahrir, overthrow all the corrupt thrones, sweep away their cronies, liberate the land and its people from the arms of colonialism and its collaborators, and pledge allegiance to the Ameer of the Hizb, the eminent aalim Ata bin Khalil Abu Rashta, as the Khaleefah Rashid (Rightly Guided Caliph), under the Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood. Victory is in the hands of Allah ﷺ Alone, Who has no partner, and He, the Exalted, grants victory to those who support Him. Allah ﷺ said, ﴿إِن تَنْصُرُوا اللَّهَ يَنْصُرْكُمْ وَيُبَيِّنُ لَكُمْ﴾ “If you support Allah ﷺ, He will support you and make your foothold firm.” [TMQ Surah Muhammad 47], Supporting this Deen is not a favor from Allah ﷺ, but rather a great Shariah obligation that can only be fulfilled by those who are worthy of it. Allah ﷺ said, ﴿وَسَارِعُوا إِلَى مَغْفِرَةٍ مِّنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَجَنَّةٍ عَرْضُهَا السَّمَاوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ﴾ “And hasten to forgiveness from your Lord and a garden as wide as the heavens and earth, prepared for the righteous.” [TMQ Surah Aali Imran: 133].

Intellectual Conflict and Political Struggle Are About Enjoining Al-Marood (Right) and Forbidding Al-Munkar (Evil)

(Translated)

Allah ﷺ has warned Muslims against neglecting to change what is evil in any form, and He has commanded them to stand against the oppressors and corruptors, otherwise punishment and torment will befall them all, and if they make Dua to Him to remove the torment from them, He will not answer them. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَتَأْمُرُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَلَتَنْهَاوُنَّ « « عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ أَوْ لَيُوْشِكَنَّ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ أَنْ يَبْعَثَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَذَابًا مِنْ عِنْدِهِ ثُمَّ تَدْعُونَهُ فَلَا يُشْتَجَبُ لَكُمْ » “By Him in Whose Hand is my soul, you must enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong, or Allah ﷺ will soon send upon you a punishment from Him, then you will call upon Him, but He will not answer you.” (Narrated by Imam al-Tirmidhi on the authority of Hudhayfah ibn al-Yaman).

Praise be to Allah ﷺ that He has provided the Islamic Ummah with an aware and sincere group who have studied the life of the Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) as he worked to establish the Islamic state, the harm and fear he ﷺ and his Companions (ra) endured, and the sacrifices they made of their lives and wealth with patience, until they transformed from a small, weak group into a strong and powerful Ummah.

This aware and dedicated group, striving to re-establish the Rule of Allah ﷺ on Earth, has become certain of the promise of Allah ﷺ for succession (istikhlaif) and empowerment (tamkeen). They have responded to their Lord's call and are working diligently to enjoin all that is right (al-ma'rrof) and forbid all that is evil (al-munkar), urging Muslims not to neglect this great Shariah obligation. They do so through intellectual conflict and political struggle. Despite the obstacles and challenges they have faced, they have remained steadfast, neither compromising nor flattering, neither faltering nor despairing. They continue and will remain on their path, steadfast and patient, until they achieve their goal of resuming the Islamic way of life, so that they and the Muslims may be saved from the punishment promised by Allah ﷺ, for those who remain silent and inactive.
