U.S. to deceive public opinion under the pretext of peace

(Translated)

After the death of Mullah Omar, the discussion on peace was stopped. But Afghanistan, China, Pakistan, and U.S. held a four way meeting on January 11, 2016 in Islamabad. Through a joint statement, the meeting enacted the condition of work as well as the participants agreed on continuing regular meetings toward attaining peace process and conciliation in Afghanistan.

We believe that the U.S. established its military bases after Bilateral Strategic and Security Agreements with the government of Afghanistan, and currently it attempts to drag Afghans into internal war as well as intends to deceive public opinions under the pretext peace in order to obtain its regional and strategic plans and aims.

As for this issue, U.S. officials have always been uttering a unique message by using various expressions to Afghan militants as they should disconnect their bond with Al Qaeda, put down their weapons, and accept the secularized constitution of Afghanistan. Even though one day before this meeting, the Afghan president had indicated that during this process, independence, the constitution and women rights are absolutely untradeable.

Consequently, it needs mentioning that the invaders and governments such as Afghanistan and Pakistan do not have the will of bringing actual peace; nonetheless, they keep sustaining the invasion of Afghanistan and colonizing the region. On the other hand, the militants who do not join the peace process under the conditions mentioned will be segmented from other columns, and afterwards the invaders and the puppet governments (Afghanistan Pakistan) together with a joint understanding will lead an unending war against Muslims and Islam under the pretext of "terrorism and radicalism" as well as will vanquish those who stand against the invasion and colonialism. As a result the colonialists will gain their strategic aims indisputably.
