The Agent Rulers Are Worried about the Threat to their Thrones but Not Worried about the Genocide War!

(Translated)

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the Jordanian, Saudi, Emirati, Palestinian Authority, and Arab League foreign ministries condemned the publication by official accounts affiliated with the Jewish entity of maps of the region that include parts of the occupied Palestinian territories, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria, claiming that they are the historical map of the Jewish entity. They expressed their concern about two issues:

One of them is the attack on what they called the sovereignty of states and the Palestinian state project. The Saudi Foreign Ministry said in a statement on Wednesday that “such extremist claims reflect the occupation authorities’ intent to entrench their occupation, continue blatant assaults on the sovereignty of states, and violate international laws and norms.” While the UAE Foreign Ministry called in its statement for “... end illegal practices that undermine the two-state solution, and the establishment of an independent Palestinian state.”

The last of these is the issue of fueling what they called extremist sentiments in the region, as Aboul Gheit warned that “the international community’s failure to address such provocative actions and irresponsible rhetoric risks exacerbating extremism and counter-extremism on all sides.”

Thus, these agent rulers were concerned about what might threaten their thrones, whether because of the expansionist Torah dreams of the Jews or because of the Muslims’ reaction to any new provocation that might turn the tables on them, and their kingdom would be lost bringing the fall of their thrones.

These rulers were not worried about the genocide war that the Jewish entity has been waging on the Gaza Strip for more than 15 months, and its killing and wounding of more than 150 thousand children, women and elderly people. Nor were they concerned about the scenes of children dying of hunger and cold there. Nor were they concerned about the scenes of dogs gnawing at the bodies of martyrs in the streets. Nor were they worried about the homes, schools, hospitals and mosques of Gaza that have become piles of rubble. Indeed, all of that did not worry them, but when it came to what might touch their thrones, they announced their concern.

If only they had added to the concern and condemnation the mobilization of the Ummah and its armies to confront the plans and dreams of the Jews, then we would have been optimistic and said that finally they will put an end to the arrogance of the Jews. But they followed the concern and condemnation with evil and neglect, so they again begged the international order, which is the same one that enabled the Jews.

Jews, supported them and helped them against us since they established their entity in the blessed land of Palestine, and they again called for the abandonment of Palestine through what is called the Palestinian state and the two-state solution!

These rulers are the agents of colonialism among us and the guardians of our enemies, the Jews. They spare no effort in serving them, but those colonists deal with them as a master deals with his slaves. He feeds them as much as will keep them alive, while he throws them out to the side of the road when they are weak or unable to serve him. There are many examples of this, some of which are still recent, such as Bashar al-Assad. Therefore, these rulers tremble whenever they feel that they are about to be sacrificed. If they were rational, they would have realized this truth and would have hastened to repent to their Lord and freed themselves from serving colonialism. But how can they do that when they have been suckled by treason and inherited it?!

It is incumbent upon the Ummah to take the initiative and regain control of the helm of leadership, to remove these rulers from its chests and to install in their place a single righteous caliph who will save it from the Jews, rescue it from their Biblical dreams and from all the ambitions and evils of colonialism, so that it may return to being a free and honorable Ummah. ﴿وَيَوْمَئِذٍ يُفْرِحُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ “And on that day the believers will rejoice” [Ar-Rum: 4]
