It Is Time to Put an End to Trump's Arrogance and America's Thuggery Over the Muslim Lands

(Translated)

US President Trump shamelessly declared on Wednesday, 10/6/2026, that America had been stealing millions of barrels of oil from Iran every day without its knowledge. He added, "I'm just announcing today for the first time... (Iran) just figured it out," thus testifying against himself and his country as a nation of thugs and pirates.

On Thursday, Trump said, "The United States will be hitting Iran...VERY HARD TONIGHT," adding, "At some point in the not too distant future, we will be taking Kharg Island, and other oil infrastructure points, and assume total control of their Oil and Gas Markets." At the same time, he issued a stern warning to Iran, stating that failure to sign the agreement proposed by America would be met with a large-scale military response. He warned that attacks would resume if Iran did not agree to the agreement his administration was pursuing.

Trump does not hide his goals or intentions. He speaks with utter brazenness and shamelessness, declaring himself the leader of a pirate and thuggery state. He seizes Iranian oil and threatens to colonize Kharg Island to plunder the oil and wealth of Muslims. He does this with complete audacity, utterly disregarding ethics, values, and even the slogans that American politicians have so often bombarded us with about human rights, freedoms, the right to self-determination, the right to life, fighting colonialism, and the exploitation of nations!

This arrogant mentality is not unique to Trump. On Thursday, 11/6/2026, US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent pledged to use Iranian funds to pay compensation for damages caused by Iran in the Gulf. He wrote on the X platform, "Any damage it [Iran] inflicts on our allies in the Gulf will be paid for with funds extracted from Iranian Accounts."

America, having become intellectually bankrupt and the falsehood of its civilization exposed, now possesses only the language of force and thuggery. Because Trump and his Republican administration are unconcerned with appearances and make no effort to embellish their image, but rather act naturally without pretense or affectation, their true, wretched, and bankrupt nature has been revealed.

The current state of affairs for Muslims, with these dwarfs now daring to attack them, is due to their own rulers, including the rulers of Iran, who have shown these dwarfs weakness, humiliation, and subservience. This has emboldened them to attack us and our lands, seeing us only as slaves and subservient subjects, oil wells to plunder, and banks to steal.

This should rouse the vibrant forces of the Ummah, foremost among them its armies, to act and set things right, putting an end to the arrogance of America, the Jews, and all the colonizing kuffar, and restoring to Muslims their unity, dignity, and the status that the Lord of the Worlds has ordained for them, under the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate) on the method of Prophethood.

What is happening these days is a cry in the conscience of every capable and sincere member of the Ummah's armies, urging them to answer their Ummah's call and put an end to the farce into which our rulers have plunged us through their decades-long allegiance to the Kafir West. So let the Ummah reclaim its freedom and the strength it deserves, instead of remaining a playground and stage for every arrogant tyrant and thug.
