

Press Release

NATO for the Middle East...

For the Cause of America and the Jewish Entity

(Translated)

Yesterday, King Abdullah II of Jordan said that he would be one of the first to support the creation of a Middle Eastern version of NATO, adding that the matter is possible with countries that share the same way of thinking, and stressed in an interview with the American network CNBC that the mission of this military alliance should be very clear, and its role must be well defined, otherwise it will be confusing to everyone "especially about our ties with the rest of the world and about our position in the alliance, to avoid any confusion."

He added that Jordan has the strength of rapid deployment, and has been actively working for many years with NATO all over the world, and they have a partnership between them. He said that he would like to see more countries in the region enter into this framework.

In the same context, the American Breaking Defense website indicated that the Middle East is on the verge of important political and military developments, the subject of which is Iran, as well as the influence of Russia and China.

This announcement is not isolated from the military joint defense agreement between Jordan and America, which made all of Jordan the largest military base for the stationing of American forces in the Middle East, and even made it a storage and launch base for the latest American military, logistical and security equipment. The announcement of this alliance came against the background of many movements and contacts between the leaders of the region under the names of the Arab (Israeli) alliance, the repeated meetings between the Jordanian king and UAE President Mohammad bin Zayed, the economic cooperation meetings with President Al-Sisi and Al-Kazemi, and recently bin Salman's visit to Jordan, Egypt and Turkey, after which Erdogan licked all the accusations related to Khashoggi's killing!

And the alliance is not, as the official media and the statements of politicians, especially the Jews, suggest that it aims at Iran, which America uses as a greedy force and a source of concern for the Gulf and the Jews, and has used it in occupying Afghanistan and protecting the Syrian regime from falling. Rather, it is America's modern method of implementing its hegemony and control over its areas of influence in the world by forming alliances and harnessing of the forces of the people of the region to defend its political, military and security interests when needed. Specifically in its conflict with Russia and the consequences of its war in Ukraine, and with its competition with China, which it considers the first threat to it as the first country in the world, in addition to integrating the Jewish entity as a natural entity in the Middle East system, with the rulers of the normalizing (of ties) countries, and even make it a natural part of all economic and political projects to protect its security and stability, and most important of all, the attempt to prevent the establishment of an Islamic state.

The first official announcement of NATO in the Middle East comes from the King to reveal part of what was behind his meetings during his visit to America last month. It began with individual meetings with the American military circles, including the Chief of Staff of the Central Forces and Chief of Staff of the Special Forces in the US Army, which indicates that America is behind the so-called the Middle East NATO. It is still in harmony with the American dictates for the stability of the regime in Jordan, which will have details during the meeting of US President Biden with the leaders of Egypt, Jordan, Iraq, the UAE and Saudi Arabia during his visit next month to Saudi Arabia.

In this context, and before the NATO announcement in the Middle East, King Abdullah II discussed with the commander of the US Central Command, Lieutenant-General Michael Corella, in the capital Amman last Tuesday, the military and defense cooperation between the two countries and 'fighting terrorism' efforts. Last Monday, the National Security Adviser to the Jewish entity, Eyal Hulata, also visited the Kingdom of Jordan, he met with senior officials at the King's Palace to strengthen relations between the two sides.

The announcement of this military alliance under the name "NATO of the Middle East" was not the result of the hour. The Muslim rulers in the region have been obeying the orders of the colonial kaffir since the existence of their regimes at the head of the government. Their subjugation and participation with the Jewish entity and its integration as a natural entity in the region reached a level that constitutes a humiliating precedent, which calls on the Ummah to stand firm and with awareness of what these regimes are conspiring against it of submission. This alliance that is to be formed will be destined to fail politically. The alliance, even if America has the first say in it, it will also be a clear clash between America's supporters and agents on the one hand and Britain's agents on the other. The stipulation that "the mission of this military alliance must be very clear and its role must be well defined, otherwise it will be confusing to everyone." Perhaps the loophole of this British-American conflict was in the context of the US-Middle East NATO.

But the most important thing in destroying these colonial alliances is the awareness of the Ummah and the people of the region and being tired of the clutches of their rulers' plots to engage in the projects of the kaffir colonizer, and humiliating the people by submitting to the cowardly Jewish entity. The rulers have always boasted about their inability to fight the Jews. They are now calling for the formation of a military NATO in the Middle East, not to fight in the cause of Allah and liberate the sacred sites and Palestine, and even the rest of the occupied Muslim lands, but rather to harness the sons of the Ummah and its forces that yearn for martyrdom in the cause of Allah as mercenaries to fight for the plans of America and Britain for control and for the kaffir colonial domination of Muslim countries.

Hizb ut Tahrir's continuous and repeated calls to mobilize armies to liberate Al-Quds and Palestine have always been heard throughout the lands and the Ummah hears it as if it were a fantasy that it underestimates. Its subservient rulers have proven to it that they can equip military and unite the security forces and fight together, but for the sake of the American and Western colonial tyrant, and not for the sake of Allah!

O Muslims, O our people in Jordan:

Yes, we will repeat our call over and over until the armies move; the sons of this best Ummah, and behind them our people in all Muslim countries, to remove all material obstacles and rulers that prevent it from achieving its vital issue and its revival project with the establishment of the second Khilafah (Caliphate) state on the method of Prophethood and the liberation of its lands, especially Palestine, and the expulsion of the great colonial powers from our country forever. In less than two decades of its establishment, the first Khilafah ended the two greatest powers at the time, the states of Persia and the Romans.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُودَ وَالنَّصَارَىٰ أَوْلِيَاءَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهُمْ مِنكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ مِنَّهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ﴾

“O you who have believed, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people” [Al-Ma’ida: 51]
