Press Release

A New Conspiracy Targeting the People of Lebanon and the Cohesion of Their Families

(Translated)

After the failure of the Western-supported feminist associations to pass gay and gender ideology in Lebanon, whose activities coincided with the activities of their counterparts in the Islamic countries, particularly the Arab countries, some suspicious media outlets have now begun promoting the ideas of gay and gender ideology in Lebanon, foremost among them those that have become known for their eagerness to spread what tears down the wall of modesty in society.

And now, one of the newspapers that has deafened us with its claims of concern for society in Lebanon has joined them once again, having published a series of articles about LGBTQ, claiming that it had conducted a survey of the parliamentary blocs in the current Lebanese Parliament regarding the decriminalization of LGBTQ.

Indeed, calls demanding the decriminalization of LGBTQ, and promoting it under any name, represent a rejected and reprehensible proposal that touches upon the established principles of Muslims in Lebanon, indeed, the established principles of all Muslims. For Muslims are one Ummah throughout the entire world, and whatever affects them in one country affects them all. The Messenger of Allah(saw) said: «الْمُؤْمِنُ لِلْمُؤْمِنِ كَالْبُنْيَانِ يَشُدُّ بَعْضُهُ بَعْضاً» "A believer to another believer is like a building, each part of which strengthens the other."

These calls open the door to what corrupts the family and social fabric in the country and encourages the spread of vice and immorality under the cover of human rights and individual freedoms. This is the very basis of what the West seeks: to tear apart the cohesion of families in the Muslim countries, so that it becomes easier for it to isolate their children and deal with them individually.

The family in Lebanon is considered one of the pillars of the continuation of life in this afflicted country; indeed, it is one of its treasures. By the grace of Allah Almighty, and then thanks to those among them who are concerned about this matter, the people of Lebanon have been able to preserve the strong cohesion of the family. This matter has cost them many sacrifices, despite everything they have suffered and continue to suffer today from wars, economic, security, and living crises.

Therefore, it is most astonishing to see the audacity of the politicians who announced their adoption of the position calling for the decriminalization of LGBTQ. By doing so, they have betrayed the segments of society whom they claim to represent and who elected them. These politicians have shown their readiness to vote in favour of decriminalizing LGBTQ! Thus, they have become people who seek to cast the family and society in Lebanon into backwardness, fragmentation, and immorality.

Allah Almighty said: ﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُحِبُّونَ أَن تَشِيعَ الْفَاحِشَةُ فِي الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ وَأَنتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ "Indeed, those who like that immorality should be spread [or publicized] among those who have believed will have a painful punishment in this world and the Hereafter. And Allah knows and you do not know." [An-Nur:19].

Furthermore, this position clearly contradicts the rulings of Islam, which most of the people of Lebanon believe in. Islam explicitly prohibits these practices and considers them a departure from the sound natural disposition upon which Allah created people. Allah Almighty said in Surah Al-A'raf: ﴿وَلُوطاً إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَتَأْتُونَ الْفَاحِشَةَ مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ * إِنَّكُمْ لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِنْ دُونِ النِّسَاءِ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُسْرِفُونَ﴾ "And [We sent] Lot when he said to his people, "Do you commit such immorality as no one has preceded you with from among the worlds? * Indeed, you approach men with desire, instead of women. Rather, you are a people committing excess." [Al-A'raf:80-81].

This prohibition dates back to the time of our masters Lut and Ibrahim, and continued through all the Prophets and Messengers who were sent after them, such as our masters Musa and Isa, peace be upon them all. So how can it be imagined that this immorality would be accepted by the Ummah of Muhammad (saw)?!

A realistic look at the societies that opened the door to encouraging and legalizing these practices is sufficient. Those policies have led to all the ills of Western societies: from reluctance to marry, to the disintegration of the family, to birth rates declining in a way that is alarming to their governments, to the weakening of social bonds in favour of individualism and isolation, and the spread of serious and contagious diseases. The latest of these is monkeypox, which spread among those who practice the immorality of the people of Lut, and nearly spread as a new global epidemic wave.

This confirms that those standing behind these repeated campaigns to spread immorality and tear apart the family in our lands are none other than the West, which is vexed to see that our lands—despite its conspiracies against them—still contain what pleases Allah, the Almighty: namely, faith, purity, modesty, honour, dignity, and a cohesive and strong family.

The family in Lebanon remains cohesive, particularly in its family structure, social relationships, and natural growth, thanks to its deep influence from the civilizational and values-based heritage of Islamic rule, which safeguarded the family and preserved the human natural disposition throughout the centuries.

While we condemn this promotion of LGBTQ agenda and sexual deviation, we look forward to and work for the return of Islamic rule and the establishment of its State, whose time has come. This State prohibits this immorality; indeed, it punishes those who commit it and those who promote it, in accordance with the command of Allah, the Almighty.

Hence, it is incumbent upon the relevant authorities to assume their responsibilities and carry out their firm role in preventing any promotion or normalization of these trends through the media and social media platforms, and in holding those who violate the rules and those involved accountable, in order to safeguard society and protect the generations from disintegration and deviation.

﴿وَاللَّهُ غَالِبٌ عَلَىٰ أَمْرِهِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

"And Allah is predominant over His affair, but most of the people do not know." [Yusuf:21]
