America's War on the Muslims of Syria Regime Welcomes Russia's Spilling of Blood to Prevent the Return of the Khilafah

Adviser on Foreign Affairs, Sartaj Aziz, on 28 October held a press conference with the visiting Secretary of Iran's Supreme National Security Council, Ali Shamkhani, after their talks at the Foreign Office. Regarding Russian air strikes in Syria, Mr Aziz said Pakistan was closely following the situation and further stated that, "Russian entry into Syrian conflict is very significant. There are indications that it will lead to a positive outcome in the shape of a political settlement."

If the Raheel-Nawaz regime were sincere to the issue of Syria, which it already claims to be following closely, it would have categorically condemned Russia's aggression on the Muslims of Syria. Since March of 2011, the Muslims of Syria, in ash-Shaam, have risen up against their ruler, President Bashar of the ruling Al-Assad family, whom America bought to power nearly forty years ago. The Muslims have arisen demanding Islam as a political solution, with many of them calling 'الشعب يريد الخلافة من جديد' "The people want the Khilafah" and raising the black and white flags of the coming Khilafah. Deprived of sleep at the thought of the return of the Khilafah, Russia in collusion with America, is military supporting the tyrant Bashar. This is even though the Al-Assad regime has destroyed towns and villages. It has slaughtered tens of thousands, not sparing the women, the elderly and the children. Its thugs have tortured the men, raped the women and abducted the children, seizing them in the streets from the arms of their mothers.

Not only that, were the regime sincere to the Muslims of Syria, rather than extending red carpet treatment for the Iranian official, it would have made him turn back on his heels, condemning the Iranian regime for its black role in Syria. Iran has assisted America in its war against the Muslims of Syria, both directly through its military personnel as well as through its proxy, Lebanon's Hezbollah. So much for the treacherous rulers of Pakistan, who applaud and welcome those who fight the return of the Khilafah!

Hizb ut Tahrir calls upon the officers of Pakistan's armed forces to perform their duty and grant the Nussrah to Hizb ut Tahrir for the return of the Khilafah upon the method of the Prophethood. Only then will there be an end of the treachery of the current rulers, who support and applaud the killing of Muslims who seek to be ruled by Islam.
