The US Enabled India to Undermine Pakistan's Navy

Reject Falling on the Sword of Dependence on the Foreign States!

Whilst lamenting at the evident insecurity caused by the US-Indian collaboration, the Bajwa-Nawaz regime still persists in its alliance with Washington. The National Security Adviser Lt Gen (ret) Nasser Janjua lamented on 27 March 2017 that "India and US have carved out space to pre-position themselves on this ocean" and that India was being "propped up as a counter-weight to China."

Successive Pakistani regimes are stubbornly clinging to alliance with the US, even though the US is working steadily to ensure India undermines Pakistan's naval capabilities. In 2000, US President Bill Clinton's six day visit to India and six hour visit to Pakistan demonstrated the US tilt towards India. In 2002, the Joint US-India Malabar naval exercises were well underway, undermining Pakistan's navy as well as that of China. In July 2005, a joint statement by then Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh and then US President George W. Bush laid the basis for the United States strengthening the Indian nuclear arms program, under the umbrella of nuclear co-operation. Moreover, having ensured that Musharraf enabled it to occupy Afghanistan at great cost to the Muslims, America promptly opened the doors of Afghanistan to Indian intelligence, from where US and Indian intelligence have coordinated attacks against Pakistan's naval capabilities. In May 2011, in the attack Mehran Naval base the P-3C Orion aircraft, which enable naval surveillance, were targeted and destroyed. Then in August 2012, there was an attack on the Kamrah air base targeting the SAAB 2000 aircraft fitted with the Erieye AEW&C (Airborne Early Warning and Control) system which provide battlefield information about sea enemy targets.

The US hand in strengthening India in its mischief is clear, yet the current regimes blinker themselves to this reality and insist on maintaining the alliance with Washington, allowing its military and civilian officials to gain intimate insight into our planning and capabilities. Deeply seated inferiority blinds them from even considering the possibility of Muslims strengthening themselves by Islam, rather than repeatedly falling on the sword of dependence upon foreign nations, whether the US, Russia or China. Pakistan and the Ummah in general will never end such self-inflicted injury by allowing such a visionless leadership. It is high time that the Muslims of Pakistan committed fully to the Khilafah project and surge forwards, sacrificing all that is necessary to ensure its practical realization. Only the Khilafah on the Method of the Prophethood will unify the Ummah and consolidate its formidable resources and capabilities as one hand against its enemies, the US crusader state and the Hindu State.

Allah (swt) warned said,

﴿مَا يَوَدُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَلَا الْمُشْرِكِينَ أَنْ يُنَزَّلَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَخْتَصُّ بِرَحْمَتِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ﴾

"Neither those who followed earlier revelation who deny the truth, nor the Mushrikeen like to see good bestowed upon you from your Sustainer; but Allah bestows grace upon whom He chooses- for Allah is limitless in His great bounty." [Surah al-Baqara 2:105]
