

Press ReleaseThose Who Truly Love RasulAllah (saw) Must Re-Establish the Khilafah on the Method of Prophethood, which will Protect the Honour of RasulAllah (saw)

«لَا يُؤْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّىٰ أَكُونَ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ»
«None of you has believed until I am dearer to him than his family, his wealth and all the people.» [An-Nisa'a]. As commentary on the love for RasulAllah (saw), Imam Abu Sulayman al-Khattabi (الإمام أبو سليمان الخطابي) stated that «فَمَعْنَاهُ لَا تَصُدُقُ فِي حُبِّي حَتَّىٰ تُفْنِي فِي طَاعَتِي نَفْسَكَ وَتُؤَثِّرَ رِضَايَ عَلَيَّ هَوَاكَ وَإِنْ كَانَ فِيهِ هَلَاقُكَ» "Its meaning is that: 'You will not be true in your love for me until you exhaust yourself in my obedience, until you prefer my pleasure over your whims even if it may lead to your death.'" Looking at the world today, this very day, 12 Rabi ul Awwal 1442 Hijri, it is clear that the deep love of RasulAllah (saw) is what distinguishes the Islamic Ummah from the people of Kufr, who attack the personality of RasulAllah (saw), mocking him and ridiculing him incessantly. So on the one hand, it is the love of RasulAllah (saw) that caused Muslims to feel pain at the evil actions of France, compelling them to take to the streets and to the social media in the defense of the honor of RasulAllah (saw). On the other hand, the Western leaders of kufr arrogantly stood firm, making clear that they will continue their support of the mocking and ridiculing of RasulAllah (saw), as they have done for years now.

As for the rulers of Muslims, it is clear that they are caught in the middle! Caught between their fear of the anger of Muslims on the one hand and their desire to obey their masters in the Western capitals on the other, they merely repeat toothless rhetoric and undertake routine, meaningless actions, as the Ummah is restless over the violations of its sanctities. Pakistan's ruler, Imran Khan, wrote a letter to the CEO of Facebook to curb Islamophobia, as if it is befitting of a ruler of Muslims, with nuclear weapons and hundreds of thousands of troops at his disposal, to write to a businessman, who exploits the Western value of freedom of expression for profit. Imran Khan wrote to the rulers of Muslims to move against Islamophobia, as if their unfeeling corpses have ever moved for any cause of the Ummah, despite commanding millions of troops and controlling the lion's share of the world's wealth.

O Muslims of Pakistan!

The current rulers of Muslims do not represent us in that which we hold dearest. We will never see the permanent, effective defense of the honor of RasulAllah (saw) until we restore the Khilafah, which rules according to the Quran and Sunnah of RasulAllah (saw), mobilizing the resources of the Ummah of RasulAllah (saw) to protect our sanctities. Even in the weakest period of the Khilafah, the love and obedience of RasulAllah (saw) was evident in the actions of the Uthmaani Khaleefah, Abdul Hameed II, when both Britain and France, the major world powers of the time, mounted attacks on the honor of RasulAllah (saw). The mere threat of Jihad by the armed forces of the Khilafah was enough to scare the shayateen away from the crusaders who retreated, never to advance again until after the destruction of the Khilafah. Today, it is upon each of us to be true to our love for RasulAllah (saw) and obedience of him (saw), by striving for the re-establishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood, which will permanently make the evil hands and tongues fall still.
