Starvation: The Genuine Weapon of Capitalism Far from America's Ludicrous Humanitarian Theatrics

(Translated)

Samantha Power, the Executive Director of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), issued a statement highlighting the deteriorating humanitarian situation in the Zamzam IDP camp in Sudan. She noted that hope has vanished, replaced by horror, as experts from the Integrated Food Security Phase Classification system confirmed that famine has persisted in the camp for over a month.

The suffering of the people is not limited to the Zamzam camp but extends to millions across Sudan. Reports have shown that over 90% of children examined in central Darfur suffer from acute malnutrition. Health workers confirmed that 4 to 5 children die daily in areas such as Radoum locality due to these conditions.

The war in Sudan continues, magnifying its catastrophic effects on the population, leading to what international organizations describe as the worst humanitarian disaster; displacement, asylum, and encirclement to the point of death by starvation. If you escape the merciless weapon of the combatants, hunger created by these conditions will destroy you.

Hunger is a weapon of war developed by Western capitalism since the world wars. It is one of the cheapest weapons used deliberately by the enemy as a military tactic to starve civilian populations, aiming to annihilate, subjugate, or drive them to submission. Many wars today are fought over water, food, and energy resources. Those who do not die by shell or sniper bullet will certainly die from a siege that prevents the entry of bread or water, turning civilians into wandering ghosts searching for food scraps. The question is, in whose interest are these wars conducted and executed? It is the greedy capitalism that controls the world today, mocking our kind by having us killed, starved, and violated.

O Muslims: The American administration, driven these days by internal elections, tries through these statements to prove to the global public that there are those who are "striving hard" to save children, women, and civilians from a famine it created by instigating this senseless war through its agents Al-Burhan and Hemeti to oust Britain's agents. What a ridiculous theater by Hollywood directors and screenwriters who think they are making real cinema while they paint real pictures of human suffering and distort peoples as they did with the indigenous people of America; the Native Americans.

America and all those complicit in these cursed wars bear full responsibility for the death, hunger, and malnutrition occurring.

O Muslims: America hides under the cloak of humanity a poisoned dagger with which it slaughters the oppressed for more control and dominance because there are no human or moral values in their capitalist creed and principle.

The confrontation between Islam and greedy capitalism cannot end unless we exit the capitalist framework that has torn the bond of principal belief among Muslims and replaced it with national ties exemplified in the saying of the Prophet (saw): « إِنَّمَا يَأْكُلُ الذَّنْبُ مِنَ الْعَنَمِ الْفَاصِيَةَ » "The wolf devours only the solitary sheep." This will happen by returning to the rule of Islam in the Islamic state; the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate) on the method of Prophethood, which protects the oppressed and cuts off the hands of the violators as it did before.
