The Policy of the Secular Regime in Turkey Conspiring Against Ash-Sham Revolution is the Reason for the Explosion of the Revolution Incubator in the Liberation

(Translated)

The officials' statements in Turkey regarding reconciliation with the barrel's regime and the opening of borders in preparation for normalization with it, and the accompanying racist actions against the people of Syria, especially in Kayseri, are a natural result of the inciting rhetoric against the people of Syria, refugees fleeing the Assad regime, by politicians in Turkey, whether those in power or in the opposition, all of this is nothing but showing the true face of the regime in Turkey, which is implementing America's plan in the region to reach what they call a political solution and return what remains of the liberated city to the embrace of the criminal regime.

According to some news agencies, Kayseri witnessed the smashing and burning of a large number of Syrian people's property, attacks, and death threats. This was accompanied by attempts to force the areas of the revolution to open crossings with the criminal regime in Damascus. All of this created a violent reaction in the liberated areas and strong popular movements against the conspiratorial policy of the Turkish regime, the truth of which became apparent to all the people of the revolution.

What happened and what will happen to the people of Syria is primarily borne by the criminal Assad regime, and shared by the Turkish regime, which has worked hard for years to kill the spirit of revolution among the people and to end the revolution and hand it over to the criminal regime...

What happened recently in Turkey is blamed on the regime in Turkey, headed by Erdogan, who announced in his electoral program that if he wins, he will implement a plan to deport the displaced Syrians to their country, which is consistent with the statements of the opposition in Turkey against the Syrians Which helped to develop hate speech and hateful racist behavior. Deportations also began in an unjust and arbitrary manner, for many of those who hold temporary residency and those who do not.

Turkish Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan stated: "The merger of the opposition and the regime in Syria will be a good thing and will constitute a force to confront the SDF." The position of the regime in Turkey appeared when Erdogan stated, "There is no dispute between him and President Bashar, and that they have family relations, and nothing prevents them from meeting soon." All of this created a state of pressure on the people and increased the tension in the incubator of the revolution, which was displaced from its homes and its brothers were killed, and tens of thousands of whom are still languishing in prisons of death and torture.

All of this happened after the Turkish regime played the role of a deceiver and was assisted in that by associated hired leaders who took control of the people's necks, robbed them of their decision, and handed it over to the teacher, who in turn would hand over the revolution to the criminal regime in the so-called deadly "political solution" in the American style.

O People of Syria: Your uprising against injustice and against the politics that conspire against you has proven the rootedness of the spirit of revolution in your souls, just as it has proven your ability when you rise up and revolt, so take advantage of the opportunity and work to restore the decision of your revolution that was stolen from you by the conspiring guarantors and their tools from the leaders of the factional system.

O Honest Revolutionaries: The truth about the regime in Turkey and the truth about the tools associated with it from the faction leaders has become clear to you... Let your popular movements be far from reactions that contradict Islam, and far from abhorrent racist discord. Rather, make them blessed movements and a renewal of the revolution to correct the course and to adopt a sincere and conscious political leadership that will lead you towards overthrowing the criminal regime in Damascus and establishing the Khilafah Rashidah (second rightly guided Caliphate) state on the method of the Prophethood to be a source of glory, victory, and to unite Muslims in Syria, in Turkey and in other Muslim countries as believing brothers under one state in which there is no place for racist Jahilyah (pre-Islamic) claims, but in which everyone will be brothers who love each other and cooperate in goodness, as Allah Almighty said: ﴿وَإِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاتَّقُونِ﴾ "Surely this religion of yours is 'only' one, and I am your Lord, so fear Me 'alone'." [Al-Mu'minun 23:52]
