Launch of Campaign:

“I am a Woman and I am against the Regime”

(Translated)

The Women’s Section of the Media Office of Hizb ut Tahrir in the Wilayah of Tunisia, launched a campaign under the title “I am a Woman and I am against the Regime” on Tuesday, 11th of October 2016. It is a campaign representing all of the honourable women of Tunisia standing in opposition to this current regime that falsely and fraudulently seeks to be alone in representing the woman for the sake of embellishing her portrayed image and to commodify her issues.

We want to explain throughout this campaign that the woman did not choose the current regime and did not support it. Its objectives are also to push women to stand up against this regime’s aggression and oppression against women in Tunisia in a wide number of areas.

This campaign will last four weeks and will be crowned with a concluding conference in which the Shabaat of Hizb ut Tahrir will present a glance at the most important field, political and intellectual actions to stand against this failed and incompetent regime. The conference will also act to expose the corruption of the regime, those in charge of it and describe its hostility to Islam.

The Women’s Section of the Media Office of Hizb ut Tahrir in the Wilayah of Tunisia will convene a forum on the 22nd of October following the first part of the campaign under the heading: “The Problems of the Woman, the Crime of the Regime”. The crimes perpetrated by the regime against women in Tunisia will be explained in this campaign.

The campaign “I am a Woman and I am against the Regime” is an open invitation for all of the women of Tunisia.
