Khilafah is the only ruling system obligated by Allah, the Lord of the Worlds. Calling for the democratic civil state is great sin, especially if the call is from the mouths of Muslims!

On Friday 24 June 2012, the Egyptian presidential election committee announced the victory of the candidate Mohamed Morsi over Ahmed Shafik. The committee announced that, "Mohammad Morsi is the new President of the Arab Republic of Egypt." The first principle statement made by the new president is his call for the democratic civil state and he declared that Egypt agrees to abide with its international agreements, and under its cover, of course, is the abiding by the Camp David agreement, a treacherous agreement that recognizes the Jewish occupation of the land of Isra'a and Miraaj, the blessed land of Palestine.

O Muslims: The Khilafah system and ruling by all that Allah has revealed, in the smallest of matters to the largest, is a great Obligation, which is well known. It prevailed in Muslim lands for over thirteen centuries. The believers rejoiced and were honored by it, whilst the enemies of Islam were shocked and humiliated by it ... It is a decisive order of Allah swt;

﴿ وَأَنْ أَحْكُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَاحْذَرْهُمْ أَنْ يَفْتِنُوكَ عَنْ بَعْضِ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ ﴾

"Judge between them by all that Allah has revealed, and follow not their vain desires, but beware of them lest they beguile you from any of that which Allah has sent down to you." [Surah Al-Maida 5:49]

And it is a decisive order of the Messenger of Allah (saw),

”كَانَتْ بَنُو إِسْرَائِيلَ تَسُوسُهُمُ الْأَنْبِيَاءُ كُلَّمَا هَلَكَ نَبِيٌّ خَلَفَهُ نَبِيٌّ وَإِنَّهُ لَا نَبِيَّ بَعْدِي وَسَيَكُونُ خُلَفَاءُ فَيَكْتُمُونَ قَالُوا فَمَا تَأْمُرُنَا قَالَ فُوا ببيعة الأول فالأول“

“The Prophet said, 'Banu Israeel used to be ruled and guided by Prophets: Whenever a prophet died, another would over his place. There will be no prophet after me, but there will be Khaleefahs in great number.' The people asked, 'O Allah's Prophet! What do you order us (to do)?' He said, 'Obey the one who will be given the pledge of allegiance, one after another.” Al-Bukhari narrated from Abu Hurayrah. And the work for Khilafah saves from the Hellfire. RasulAllah (saw) said,

”مَنْ خَلَعَ يَدًا مِنْ طَاعَةِ لِقَىَ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُ وَمَنْ مَاتَ وَلَيْسَ فِي عُنُقِهِ بَيْعَةٌ مَاتَ
مَيِّتَةً جَاهِلِيَّةً“

“One who withdraws his hand from obedience (to the Amir) will find no argument (in his defence) when he stands before Allah on the Day of Judgment, and one who dies without having bound himself by an oath of allegiance (to an Amir) will die the death of one belonging to the days of jahillyya 'the death of ignorance'” Reported by Muslim from Abdullah ibn Umar.

And the allegiance here is only to the Khilafah, and the death of ignorance metaphor for the great sin for the one who does not work for the Khilafah.

The democratic civil state is the product of secularism, produced by the kafir West, by separating religion from the state, where people rule by man-made rules instead of those of Allah. They forbid and permit, and they allow and prevent ... asking people Instead of asking the book of Allah swt and the Sunnah of RasulAllah (saw).

With regard to abiding by international agreements that lost the right of Muslims, and took away their lands and granted authority to the kuffar over them, it is a terrible sin and a wide, open door for shame and humiliation in this world, though the punishment of Allah is the greatest ... All of this is great calamity that invites serious dangers to visit Egypt, Egypt Al-Qinana (Quiver of arrows), Allah's quiver of arrows on earth, Egypt the defeater of Crusaders, the Tartars and the Jewish entity, inshaaAllah, eradicating it completely from the earth ... All of this is a calamity, and invites great dangers to Egypt. But what is a greater shame and more terrible is that it is called for by the mouths of the Muslim Brotherhood whose candidate won by the votes of Muslims, thinking that they will be ruled by Islam. That they will be shaded by the shade of the Banner (Raya) of Islam, under the Khilafah in which they will be freed after slavery, and feel safe after fear and relieve the Blessed Lands from occupation ... This is why the people gave their votes and gave their support. But they did not give for a new secular order, with a new face, a new tongue, old words renewed, calling for a secular state with its thought, approach and emotion!

O Muslims: We are aware that the second Khilafah is coming, inshaaAllah, by the believing pious hearts, and by pure worthy hands and by strong and powerful arms, over the necks of the enemies of Islam ... this is promise of our Allah swt:

﴿وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ﴾

"Allah has promised, to those among you who believe and work righteous deeds, that He will, of a surety, grant them succession (from the current rulers) in the land, as He granted it to those before them." [Surah An-Nur 24:55]

And it is the glad tidings of our Prophet (saw),

”ثُمَّ تَكُونُ خِلَافَةٌ عَلَىٰ مِثَاجِ النَّبُوءَةِ“

“Then there will be a Khilafah on the Methodology of the Prophethood.” Reported by Ahmad

Therefore the promise of Allah and the glad tidings of His Messenger will both happen, inshaaAllah, and on that Day the believers will rejoice with Allah's victory. He helps whom He will, and He is exalted in Might, Most Merciful.

Hizb ut-Tahrir calls you, O Muslims, to follow the call of Allah through following His path alone;

﴿قُلْ هَذِهِ سَبِيلِي أَدْعُو إِلَى اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ بَصِيرَةٍ أَنَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَنِي وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ﴾

"Say: "This is My way: I do invite to Allah, with evidence as clear as the seeing with one's eyes, I and Whoever follows me. Glory be to Allah. And never will I make shirk with Allah." [Surah Yusuf 12:108]

And to govern between you only by all that the Almighty sent in the Shari'ah;

﴿فَلَا وَرَبِّكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ حَتَّىٰ يُحَكِّمُوكَ فِي مَا شَجَرَ بَيْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوا فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ حَرَجًا مِمَّا قَضَيْتَ وَيُسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا﴾

"But no, by the Lord, They can have no (real) Faith, until They make Thee judge In all disputes between them, and find In their souls no resistance against Thy decisions, but Accept them with the fullest conviction." [Surah An-Nisaa'a 4:65]

So, work with us to resume the Islamic way of life in the earth through the establishment of the second Khilafah on the Methodology of the Prophethood, granting allegiance to a Khalifah to implement all that was revealed from Allah, to be protected by him and fighting from behind him, “وَأِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَّةٌ يُقَاتِلُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِ وَيُتَّقَى بِهِ،”

"Indeed, the Imam is a shield, you are protected by him and fight from behind him." Al-Bukhari narrated from Abu Hurayrah.

Then we send this advice, purely for the sake of Allah, to the new president in Egypt, you must fear Allah and desist from calling for the democratic civil state, with a secular thought, approach and sentiment. Returning to Truth is a virtue, so that you do not lose the whole life, after losing most of it through the military council cutting your wings and reducing your authority and so that you do not lose the Hereafter through your pleasing of America and the West by calling for the democratic civil state, and angering Allah, the Lord over America and the West, by not working for the establishment of the Khilafah and the implementation of the law of Allah. There is no doubt that you have read the Hadeeth of the RasulAllah (saw),

“من أرضى الناس بسخط الله وكله الله إلى الناس ومن أسخط الناس برضا الله كفاه الله مؤنة الناس”

“Whosoever pleased the people angering Allah; Allah will give him up to the people, and whosoever angers the people to please Allah; Allah will suffice him of any need of the people.” Tirmidhi, Abu Naim in Helyah from Aisha (ra).

This advice is purely Allah swt. We do not seek from you any reward or thanks, but wish to prevent the kuffar gloating, and their agents and all the enemies of Islam mocking when they hear that their project, the democratic civil state has become a call from the Muslims, the Muslim Brotherhood and indeed we are from Allah and to Him we will return.

On the 45th anniversary of Hafez Assad sale of the Golan Heights to the Jewish State,
We bring to the Muslims in Syria the news of the imminent fall of the treacherous regime of Assad
(Translated)

Throughout those days of June 1967, the Arab rulers at the time committed a heinous crime against the Muslim ummah. During those six days, they enabled the Jewish state to defeat the armies of the Muslim ummah in Egypt, Jordan and Syria, led by their criminal leaders, including Hafez Assad in Syria, who announced the fall of Qunaitra one whole day before the entry of the enemy to the Golan Heights. The town of Qunaitra was located behind the lines of the Syrian army fighting then in the Golan Heights; thus leading to the disruption and withdrawal of the army. On that fateful day, Hafiz Assad, the agent of the West received authority in Damascus as a prize for selling off the Golan Heights.

So, Syria was struck many times under the leadership of this criminal family:

On the day when Hafez Assad sold off the Golan Heights, the day when he secured the borders of the Jewish state, the day he committed the massacre of Hama, and the day when the murderer Bashar inherited the authority after the death of his father, the killer. Here is Bashar today, continuing the criminal legacy of his father by committing daily massacres in Syria with the complicity of the entire world against its blessed revolution. This is because there is still a debt owed since the sale of the Golan Heights. We, in Hizb ut-Tahrir in Syria remind the people, especially those who claim to resist the occupation and live off the support of this criminal regime, that Hafez Assad who sold off the Golan, and his son after him are the loyal allies of the Jewish state. Bashar announced yesterday before the new council of puppets that the enemy is not at the battle front against the Jews; rather the enemy is at home: in the heart of Homs which is pounded day and night, in Dar'aa, Idleb, Aleppo and Damascus, which are embittered by bombing, killing and detention ... We remind people that the shells of Bashar killed the defenseless Muslim people, dozens of times more than the Jewish state killed in all of its wars with Syria. Is it not time for the advocates of this regime to come to their senses, if they have any, to understand that they support a malicious, criminal, and oppressive agent regime that not only protects the Jewish state; but is the bitterest enemy of the ummah: her deen, her land and her honour. He (SWT) says:

﴿أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَتَكُونَ لَهُمْ قُلُوبٌ يَعْقِلُونَ بِهَا أَوْ آذَانٌ يَسْمَعُونَ بِهَا فَإِنَّهَا لَا تَعْمَى الْأَبْصَارُ وَلَكِنْ تَعْمَى الْقُلُوبُ الَّتِي فِي الصُّدُورِ﴾

"Do they not travel through the earth, where they would have hearts by which they contemplate, or ears by which they hear. Indeed, the sight is not blind; it is rather the hearts (located) in the chests are blind"

In conclusion, we say to the rising Muslim people in beloved Syria:

You have realized the path to your salvation through the revolution against this criminal regime; and you understood the stance of America and the West against from the successive deadlines given to the regime; the latest deadline was the Annan plan. Since the announcement of this plan the number of martyrs reached more than 2286 martyrs, of whom 206 are children and 214 are women. So, declare the categorical rejection of any intervention of the West in your issues, and cut off the head of the snake and purify the country of the Al Assad criminal ring and their associates. Let the memory of the conspiracy of June 1967 be another motivation for you to revenge the violation of the sanctities of Allah. Hand over the reins of your authority to the faithful of you from Hizb ut-Tahrir to establish the state of Islam, the rightly guided Khilafah State. Then the Muslim armies led by the Khaleefah will rush for a victory which our hearts have longed for, to defeat the enemy, and return every occupied, wasted or sold inch of the land of Islam. Rather, they would spread the Truth to the entire world, so that your State returns as a beacon of light, and your ummah becomes the best nation brought for mankind. Stand firm; for no matter the forces of evil gathered against you they are more despicable in the sight of Allah than the dung beetle. Look to the heavens rather than to the earth; for Allah All Mighty alone is your supporter, and He promised you of victory; and indeed His promise is true. He (SWT) says:

﴿وَاذْكُرُوا إِذْ أَنْتُمْ قَلِيلٌ مُسْتَضْعَفُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ تَخَافُونَ أَنْ يَخَطِفَكُمْ النَّاسُ فَأَوَاكُمُ وَيَأْخُذَكُمْ بِبَصَرِهِ وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ﴾

"And remember when you were few and vulnerable on earth; where you were afraid that people might sweep you away; so He gave you homage, supported you with His victory and provided you with good things, that you may be grateful." □

America is Afraid of the Collapse of its Puppet, Bashar, at the Hands of Muslims before the Emergence of their Alternative, So it Revives the Yemeni Solution and Hints at Military Intervention, Imagining it would Prevent the Return of Islam Rising to Power Again!
(Translated)

In a notable statement, on 28.5.2012, the Chairman of the US Joint Chiefs Gen. Martin Dempsey said: "the Pentagon is ready for the option of military intervention to end the violence in Syria". This sudden statement comes after a series of statements from U.S. Defense Secretary Panetta, and Secretary of State Clinton, and from the head of the US Government, Obama that ruled out military intervention in Syria because it would complicate matters. The last of these statements came in the meeting of the G8 and the meeting of NATO countries. The general line of U.S. policy in Syria was to make room for its puppet Bashar to kill and suppress until it prepared a substitute regime that would preserve its on-going influence in Syria. It did this by calling for a peaceful political transition of governance, negotiation, and giving successive deadlines until such time as it finishes manufacturing its substitute agent as alternative. The previous initiatives, Arab observers, then the international observers came in this context. The last of these was Annan's initiative that came to serve the general stance of American policy. This is what Annan himself announced, when he called the government and the opposition to sit at the negotiating table; and said that his mission was to find a solution to the conflict in Syria, which could start with a political process.

This initiative of Annan is an American initiative par excellence. His visit came immediately after the Hula massacre and in the atmosphere of accelerated severance of diplomatic relations with the Syrian regime, carrying a message to the Syrian people that it cannot be saved from the Syrian regime except through the American solution! This is the way by which America propagates its plan: a criminal regime that exercises the horrible crimes against unarmed civilians; and the initiative led by Annan, who has mastered the art of covering up crimes against humanity! His precedent in Bosnia bears witness to that. Our memories still retain images of the huge massacres in Bosnia when the West left its Muslims to be slaughtered and killed, where 8,000 men and children of the Bosnian Muslims in Srebrenica were killed, at a time when Annan himself was responsible for the peace-keeping operations at the United Nations. But when they felt that the balance has tilted in favor of Muslims, they intervened and imposed their unjust solutions.

Similarly, as the tone of America changed to military intervention in Bosnia when the balance tipped in favor of the Muslims, so it wanted to break their power and forced them to accept their solution. America has sensed the balance is tilting in favour of the brave rebels, and that its puppet Bashar is shaking, no longer able to hold out until the alternative is ready. Its tone has shifted from giving deadlines to Bashar to trying to change the regime from within by Bashar's departure and inaugurating his deputy after him, as called for by Qatar. This follows the Yemeni process, which was rejected at the time by America and its followers in the Syrian regime, because it was of British led. It has now returned to it, where Obama stressed together with the leaders of the G8 the need for Assad's departure. He pointed to Yemen as a model for a political transition that could succeed in Syria. In this regard, U.S. National Security Advisor Thomas Donilon also stated that Obama raised the issue of the peaceful transition plan on the Yemeni model with the Prime Minister of Russia, Medvedev, on the sidelines of the G8 summit at Camp David. He added that this plan would be on the table for talks between Obama and Putin at the first meeting bringing them together.

America is aware that the rebels in Syria did not rise up to change one agent for another; nor to switch an ugly face for another, more or less ugly; and that Bashar, his deputy, and his deputy's deputy and all his cronies are all the same in the crime, cruelty and betrayal. The rebels will not settle for other than the uprooting of the regime, and the establishment of the rule of Islam: the rightly-guided Khilafah in Sham, the centre of the abode of Islam. Therefore, America has resorted to threat of military intervention, which came in the announcement of the U.S. Army Chief of Staff, Martin Dempsey. This is an indication of its readiness for the option of military intervention in the event of a threat to its influence in Syria. It does not intend to intervene to change the Syrian regime as some people think! The timing of this statement gives a clear signal that the Syrian situation has reached a crisis point that threatens American influence. It demonstrates also that the regime of Bashar is unsustainable until such time as an alternative becomes ready. So America's hinting at military intervention is to scare the rebels in order that they do not establish the rule of Islam in Syria, where America would then retreat to its own backyard for good.

O Muslims: The internal situation of the Syrian regime is no longer merely shaken. Its pillars are about to collapse. The balance has begun to tilt in favour of the blessed revolution, manifested in specific operations, in addition to the legendary ideological steadfastness of the people and their determination to overthrow the regime. Furthermore, the strike in Damascus indicates that the power of Bashar no longer extends beyond his palace and the security headquarters and barracks. The famous Hamidiyya market was closed followed by its twin: the market of Hareekah, and Al-Asrooniyyah; and the historic market of Medhat Pasha, and Khalid Bin Al Waleed street and others ... The strike at the heart of Damascus was a serious blow to a regime whose poisoned stomach is still hurting.

O Muslims rising in Sham, of victory and triumph, Allah willing:

The guide does not lie to his people, and Hizb ut-Tahrir warns you of the West and its moves, especially at this critical moment. So, declare your rejection of all of its initiatives, and discard the opposition that begs for the poisoned Western solutions, some of which call for the coming of Ash-Shar' after Assad for example, as Abed Rabbo came after Ali Saleh, in the Yemeni model which Obama presented to Putin. You must consider each contact with the West and begging solutions from it as an unforgivable treason. Do not let the threats of the U.S. Chief of Staff with military intervention frighten you. For as long as you remain honest with Allah and His Messenger, America and its masses will, Inshallah, be defeated ... You and your loyal soldiers, with the rally of the Ummah around you, will be able, Inshallah, to uproot this criminal regime . As you declared "we will never kneel save to Allah", declare "we will never kneel to America, and we will never accept its solutions"...

Declare that the time of intrigues has passed ... and tell the West: you have no way over us after this day ... Declare that the goal of our revolution is full liberation from the disbelieving man-made law of the West and its tyrant agents ... And that we will not accept other than Islam, as a deen and a rule and a system for life - "Khilafah on the model of prophethood" ... Declare that the country of Sham, the centre of the abode of Islam, the land of the great battlefield, will be the graveyard for conspiracy and intrigue against it, and of everyone who infringed its rights and the rights of Muslims.

﴿سَيُصِيبُ الَّذِينَ أَجْرَمُوا صَغَارٌ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَعَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ بِمَا كَانُوا يَمْكُرُونَ﴾

Hizb ut-Tahrir's countrywide demonstration against the visit of butcher of Salala, US General John Allen

Hizb ut-Tahrir Wilayah Pakistan demonstrated countrywide against the visit of General John Allen, the butcher of Salala. Demonstrators were carrying banners and placards declaring "Meeting the Salala butcher is a sign of treachery" and "Traitor rulers are sacrificing Pak army for America." Demonstrators condemned this shameful act of traitors within the political and military leadership, who have allowed General John Allen to visit Pakistan. They were saying that these traitors within the political and military leadership never tired of cheating the people of Pakistan through their continuously shouting that they won't sacrifice Pakistan's sovereignty and integrity. But at the same time they not only welcome those American Generals whose hands are drenched with the pure blood of the twenty four martyrs of Salala check post and thousands of Muslims who have been killed in drone attacks, but furthermore they feel pride and honour to even have a photo session with them.

Prior to Allen's visit, attacks on Pakistan armed forces have increased in the last few days and they have been killed in a vicious manner, just as it happened before the Swat operation, so that an opinion will be generated with in the armed forces so as to extend this American war of Fitna to the remaining parts of the tribal regions. Demonstrators further said that whether a ruler is a dictator or democratic, it has been proved that both have been failed to protect the lives, wealth, honour of the people as well as the sovereignty and integrity of the country. They said that only the Khilafah can protect the Ummah and its interests. They demanded that the Pakistan armed forces must respond to the American aggression with an iron fist, close the American embassy and consulates as well as their military installations, expel American diplomats, military and intelligence personnel, end the American war of Fitna in tribal region and provide Nussrah to Hizb ut-Tahrir in order to establish Khilafah. In the end demonstrators leave peacefully chanting slogans "Expel traitors. Bring Khilafah!" "Close embassies and military installations, end the American Raj." □

Re-opening of the NATO supply line and military operations in the tribal areas are Haram; there are treachery against Islam and Muslims

Re-opening of the NATO supply line and a new military operation in North Waziristan both represent more treachery from the rulers, who already have a long list of treasonous crimes. Even during the blockade of the land supply route, these dishonorable rulers continued to allow the supply of arms and ammunition to America through an air corridor. Within the last week alone, US General John Allen visited Pakistan twice. He and General Kayani released a joint statement expressing their resolve to eliminate safe heavens for terrorist on both sides of Durand line. This exercise is an attempt to expand the so-called war on terror in the tribal regions to include North Waziristan also for the resumption of the NATO supply line. Simultaneously, in the last few days, attacks on the Pakistan army in the tribal areas have escalated and soldiers have been killed brutally, just as they were before the start of the Swat operation so that a favorable opinion could be generated with in the masses and Pakistan army so as to spread this war of Fitna into other areas as well.

Kayani and the traitors in the political and military leadership have no respect for the blood of our soldiers whether it is spilt at Salala or in Dir. The need of the hour is not to conduct a military operation in tribal area, rather the situation demands a strong military operation against the network of American agencies, including Black Water in the country, the closure of American bases and embassies, the expulsion of American diplomats and intelligence agents and the termination of the American war of Fitna in the tribal regions. American agencies, including Black Water, keep spying on Pakistan armed forces, initiating attacks on them and then put the blame on tribal Muslims. They even have offices in residential areas, such as Lahore's Gulberg. The opening of the supply line and military operations in the tribal region are both Haram. Allah swt said:

Tokyo I to Tokyo II; a new look from occupation to colonialism (Translated)

The series of national and regional conferences begun at the dawn of the Afghanistan occupation. For the second time, it is Tokyo's turn. Today, 8th of July 2012, Tokyo is hosting an international conference called "Tokyo II International Conference" in which authorities from 70 major donor countries will gather to contribute to the colonialists under the slogan "Donation for Afghanistan's reconstruction beyond 2014".

Holding such conferences on the issues of the Islamic Ummah is aimed at drawing colonialist maps for the Ummah including the political and economic aspects of their life, and nothing else. This is one of the very useful methods for the capitalistic system to impose its foreign policy and to spoil public opinion and to distract them from focusing on the real solution to their problems i.e. "establishing the Islamic Khilafah". They therefore call it "donation" instead of colonialist economic programs. But if we look at the price of these donations, we can easily find that during the last 11 years, murdering innocent civilians, assaulting the glorious Islam, increasing of poverty, unemployment, immorality, oppression and looting has been the hallmark of the democratic system. Unsurprisingly, according to their own organizations' statistical reports, more than 70% of the Afghanistan people live below the poverty line. Furthermore, the increasing number of beggars on the roads of Kabul and other provinces' are undeniable facts that prove the above claim.

In addition, the planned withdrawal of the NATO troops in 2014 is another key issue in this conference which is called the turning point in Afghanistan's history. But there are many factors including Afghans' Jihad against the colonialists, western economic crisis, military budget reduction, national defense and the current year's elections, that made the US not to withdraw as they did from Iraq, rather it will change the nature of its existence in the region. As this was indicated by the United States Secretary of Defense that; in the years ahead the US will focus on Asia, specially the lands around the Pacific Ocean. Yet there are still 16000 troops in Iraq in the US embassy. And beside that, there are still many active American military bases all around Iraq. They will do the same in Afghanistan, as they will reduce their troops in number very abruptly, and keep a limited number of troops besides their political envoys, who don't fight directly, but of course arrange the Muslims to fight the Islamic Ummah. They will stay here to obtain their colonialist goals, whether it is their influence into Russia and China, or the broadening of their control over the Eurasian region, or their looting of the resources of Islamic Ummah's and the hindrance of the rise of the Khilafah State in the region.

O Muslims of Afghanistan!

As Allah SWT has apparently forbidden us from building friendship (al-wala) with Kuffar, it is also decreed for us by our Prophet Mohammad SAW that accepting donations from the Kuffar under their own banners is totally Haram. Therefore, instead of asking donations and aids from the West, ask these from the Creator of the West and Muslims and strive day and night to establish the Islamic Khilafah which is based on the Sharia law and divine system, and is truly the only solution for all problems in Muslim world. You are the part of the Muslim Ummah, who has triumphantly come out of all political, economic and military austerities. You've always chosen the right way, except a number of tyrants, and of course through the pure Jihad in Allah SWT's way, you have proven your loyalty to your Lord. You hence must not be beguiled by these western deceptions, because Allah SWT is the only One who grants the predominance of this Ummah over the others and truly He is the one who honors and disgraces anyone he wants.

﴿ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَنْفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ لِيَصُدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَسَيَنْفِقُونَهَا ثُمَّ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً ثُمَّ يُغْلَبُونَ
وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ يُحْشَرُونَ ﴾

"Verily, those who disbelieve spend their wealth to hinder (men) from the Path of Allâh, and so will they continue to spend it; but in the end it will become an anguish for them. Then they will be defeated. And those who disbelieve will be gathered unto Hell." [Surah-Anfal 36] □

We Condemn Attacks on Churches in Garissa

The incident that left 17 People killed and 66 injured in Northern Kenya is indeed a sad one and must be condemned/ opposed by every peace loving person. While investigations have not yet been concluded, accusations have already been directed to Terrorists. Politicians as usual came forward to oppose and condemn the attacks and vowed to step up security. On Monday 02/07/2012, White house press secretary Jay Carney said; "The perpetrators of the attacks have shown no respect for human life and dignity, and must be brought to justice for these heinous acts".

Hizb-ut Tahrir/East Africa would like to condemn these attacks because Islam forbids Muslims from attacking places of worship such as Mosques, Churches and Synagogues. Moreover Islam forbids any type of injustice including annoying non-Muslim so long as they do not fight Islam. The Prophet (saw) said, "Who ever slanders a Dhimmi (non-Muslim citizen) then he (saw) is his rival on the day of Judgment." However, we would like to caution Muslims from falling into the trap of the so - called war on terror by starting to suspect and accuse one another even without any evidence. The Almighty Allah said;

﴿ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اجْتَنِبُوا كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الظَّنِّ إِنَّ بَعْضَ الظَّنِّ إِثْمٌ ﴾

'O ye who believe! Avoid most of suspicions; for suspicion in some cases is a sin.' [49:13].

With regards to the White House's statement, Hizb-ut Tahrir / East Africa perceives this as total contradiction to what America does. How can Garissa attackers be brought to justice while American troops raid houses and Mosques in Afghanistan and elsewhere in the world and at the same White House remains silent and does not seem to bring her soldiers into justice despite the clear evidence of their atrocities! Is America really showing any respect for human life and dignity as Obama claims? Moreover, why is the murder committed by the American soldiers and NATO not labeled as Terrorism? How does America judge? This is very clear that terrorism is a politicized war launched by the West and uses it to trigger hatred against Islam and wage war against Muslims. Truly if this war does not target Muslims then the American and NATO Troops must be called terrorists and brought to justice.

As for the politicians who came forward to condemn these attacks and arguing that there are terrorists in the country who threaten security, this is only for the purpose of seeking political mileage in the next coming General Election and has nothing to do with caring for the security of the citizens. This is rather mocking at the citizens because in their political rallies they incite tribalism and speak inflammatory statements which in reality endangers the security of the citizens. They are the very politicians who usually hire hooligans to carry out their evil plans as had happen during the political chaos in early 2008 where nearly 50 Christian faithful were burnt alive inside Assemblies of God Church in Eldoret.

Finally we Hizb call the Christians in Kenya to open their hearts in understanding Islam and embrace it as a comprehensive ideology with a profound system of governance the Khilafah which its establishment is expected very soon in one of the Muslim lands. Historically the Khilafah guaranteed peace and tranquility for all its citizens regardless of faith, color, tribe or region. In East Africa our work is propagating Islam intellectually as an ideology to the people and adopting the Islamic solutions to all problems facing human that have been caused by the filthy ideology of Western capitalism.

After a series of grenade explosions in Nairobi, Mombasa and other areas in the country, it appears that the Government of Kenya is intending to pass the 'Suppression of Terrorism Bill' which is now known as Prevention of Terrorism Bill, 2012. This bill was published for the first time in the official Kenyan Gazette supplement No. 38 on 30 April 2003 and was rejected by parliamentarians nine years ago. □

Question & Answer: Current Crisis in Myanmar (Burma)

Question:

Kindly give us an overview about the political reality of Myanmar (Burma) and the reasons for the terrible persecution of Muslims there, as well as the regional and international stances towards it, with thanks and appreciation.

Answer: Below is an overview of what is necessary regarding this issue.

1. The population of this country is more than 50 million, including around 20% Muslims who are concentrated in the capital city of Rangoon, the city of Mandalay and the province of Arakan. 70% of the inhabitants are Buddhists and the rest embrace Hinduism, Christianity and other religions. Burma, however, recognizes only a tiny 4% of the Muslims and considers the remaining Muslims as foreigners. Consequently, it works to expel them and neither grants them the country's nationality nor does it recognize any rights for them. Hence, they are exposed to attacks by Buddhists, with the support of the government machinery to the extent that they are being killed and forced to emigrate.

2. The historians mention that Islam entered the country in 788 AD at the time of the Khaleefah Harun al-Rashid, when the Islamic Khilafah was the leading state in the world for many centuries. Islam began to spread throughout Burma, when the Burmese saw its greatness, truth and justice. The Muslims ruled Arakan province for more than three and half centuries, between 1430 AD and 1784 AD. In this year, the kuffar got united against the province. Subsequently, the Buddhists occupied it and wreaked havoc in the province, killing the Muslims and shedding their blood, particularly their scholars and da'i, besides looting their resources and destroying the Islamic architectures such as the Masajid and schools, due to their hatred and fanaticism from their Buddhist ignorance.

3. There existed in the region colonialist division and competition between Britain and France. The British occupied and colonized Burma in 1824 AD, whilst the French occupied and colonized the neighboring Laos. In 1937, Britain separated its colony Burma from "the Government of British India." So, it became a separate British colony to be administered by this government under the name "the Government of British Burma" and the Arakan province was made subservient to this government under the control of Buddhists.

4. In 1940 during the World War II, a movement known as the, "thirty militia comrades - the Burma Independence Army," was established in pendence Army," was established in this colony. This movement was formed by thirty people of Burmese nationality, who received their training in Japan and vowed to expel the British occupiers. They entered their country with Japanese occupiers in 1941. At that time, Burma was one of the lines of confrontation between Britain and Japan, until Japan was defeated at the end of World War II in 1945. Then, Britain once again managed to extend its colonialization of Burma. In 1942 AD, the Muslims were exposed to massacres at the hands of the Buddhists, which claimed the lives of around one thousand Muslims and led to the expulsion of hundreds of thousands of them out of the country. In 1948 AD, Britain granted Burma formal independence and one year later, i.e. in 1947 AD Britain held a conference preparing for independence and called on all the groups and ethnicities in the country to the conference, barring the Muslims. At the conference, Britain laid down a clause stipulating that rights shall be given to every group and ethnicity within ten years of the independence. However, the Burmese government did not implement that and continued persecuting Muslims.

5. In 1962 AD, a military coup occurred in Burma under the leadership of the military general, Ne Win. He established a military council in the name of the State Council for Restoring Law and Order and ruled the country directly until 1988, with the Council remaining until 1997 under the control of Ne Win. In 1990, elections were held and the opposition National Democratic Party got a majority of the seats. However, the military government did not recognize the transfer of power until a new constitution was drafted and continuous meetings have been held since 1993 to draft a new constitution. In the wake of this coup, the Muslims became vulnerable to the persecution from the fanatical Buddhist military rule, which forced more than three thousand Muslims to migrate to Bangladesh. More than half a million Muslims were expelled from the country in 1978, with more than forty thousand of them, including elderly, women and children, dying due to the harsh conditions imposed on them, according to statistics of the refugee aid agency of the United Nations. In 1988, more than 150 thousand Muslims migrated abroad and more than half a million Muslims became subjected to migration and expulsion from the country, in retaliation for their support to the opposition party, which won a majority of the seats in the Council in 1990 AD. The government of the country turned to looking at the Muslims as strangers and not as the inhabitants of the country, depriving their children of education and of marriage before thirty years of age. It even imposed on them a bar on any marriage for a period of three years, so as to reduce their number and the worst practices were implemented against them by the government. In 1989 AD, the government changed its name from Burma in English, to "Myanmar." There are countries which recognized the second name, whilst some other counties recognize and use only the first name.

6. The military continued to rule Burma, sometimes directly supported by the English and at some other times through the British agent India. The system of governance in Burma/Myanmar has ostensibly been made closer to the communist one, to win support of Russia and China, thereby drawing a cover over its reality, just as many regimes in the Arab world draw covers over their loyalty to America or Britain, thereby trying to establish good relations with the communists, particularly Russia and China. America had previously protested India's role in supporting the military regime and its close cooperation with it. France's news agency, whilst reporting the Indian Prime Minister, Manmohan Singh's, visit to Burma on 28/5/2012 and concluding a series of the agreements, stated that "India established good relations with Military Council during the nineties of the last century, particularly in the area of security and energy. In 2010, Washington condemned India's silence on the human rights' violations in Burma. Even Suu Kyi, who completed part of her studies in India, where her mother is ambassador, expressed her grief at India's support for the military rule in her country". In November 2007, the news agencies quoted Washington's appeal to both India and China to stop providing the military regime in Burma with weapons. The military regime in Burma granted China military facilities in its ports in the Bay of Bengal and in the Indian Ocean, with the aim of gaining China's support in view of the US attack on it and also it is in China's interest to establish a port in Burma, towards the Indian Ocean. India shares with China a land border of two thousand kilometers, to its north-east, and India also shares a land border with Burma, to the latter's north-western side, which used to follow the government of British India. And after Britain's formal departure from Burma, India became its guardian and so Burma stood under India's protection and support.

7. America raised public opinion against the military rule and focused the attention of public opinion on the leader of the opposition, Aung San Suu Kyi, until she was released in November 2010. Then it increased pressure on the military council and raised public opinion against it so that the Council dissolves itself and hands the reign over to the civilians. But Britain along with the government of India treated the matter shrewdly. They prompted the Council to call for general elections, applying the methods that they are well-versed in... So the elections were held in 2010 in which the Solidarity and Development Party won about 80% of the seats, which is the party of Military. The Military Council dissolved itself and handed the reigns over to the civilians. These civilians are retired generals, led by the retired General Thein Sein who took the reigns in March 2011.

8. America is still putting pressure on the regime in Burma, in order to remove the military regime of retired generals and bring the opposition leader, demonstrating its full support to Aung San Suu Kyi and her National Democratic Party. So, they are publishing future analysis with the possibility of opposing leader winning the general election of 2015 AD. The US Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton, paid a visit to Burma on 1 December 2011 and announced that her country would appoint an ambassador for the first time in twenty years and that it would ease sanctions in line with progress of democratic reforms in Burma. On 01/04/2011 partial elections were held over 45 seats and the National Democratic Party, headed by opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi, won 43 seats. In spite of this, U.S Secretary of State clarified saying, "it is still early to judge how much progress has been made in the recent months in Burma and whether it shall continue to," (as quoted by the French news agency, AFP). In this way the US Secretary of State wanted to exert pressure on the Burmese regime, making the credibility of progress in the democratic process doubtful, because the military in their civil form are the ones who are ruling the country and imposing their control on the political scene of Burma. Under the constitution drafted by the military in the nineties of the last century, a quarter of the seats in Parliament can be appointed by the military, without elections.

Thus, America is not satisfied with the political situation in Burma, although they have made progress by getting the opposition leader released, whose party is undertaking political activity. However they are continuously applying pressure on the regime and apparently questioning its credibility, seeking to apply more pressure so that they can dislodge the military, which is loyal to the British government, from power.

9. On the other hand, Britain's position was supportive as its Foreign Minister, William Hague, positively commented on what is happening in Burma and said, "The UK, which is regarded as the largest provider of bilateral aid to the people in Burma, stands ready to support the political process in Burma" (Associated Press on 3/4/2012). Its Prime Minister, David Cameron, after the elections, visited Burma and is considered the first Western head to visit Burma, since the coup of 1962 AD. He praised the Burmese regime saying, "Now there is a government which asserts that it is determined to carry out reforms and has taken certain measures in this regard and I think this is a good time to come here and encourage these measures," (according to Associated France Press). He met with Burmese president, Thein Sein, who said, "we are delighted at your support on the efforts we are making to promote the democracy and human rights in Burma." And so, Britain is satisfied with the political situation in Myanmar, being supported by it.

10. On 3/6/2012, a group of Buddhists attacked a bus carrying Muslim and killed nine of them. In the wake of this mishap, events such as killing and burning of houses and expulsion broke out between Buddhists and Muslims, until it covered several populated areas of Muslims and tens of thousands of them started to migrate from their homes. The government of Bangladesh refused to assist those fleeing to its land, rather it sent them back and closed the borders for them. In the same season last year, Muslims got exposed to similar attacks and were forced to flee the country. For decades, every year they are faced with such incidents of killing, displacement and expulsion from their homes, as well as demolition of their houses at the hands of spiteful Buddhists by the support of Burmese regime. The West, led by America, applauds the new regime for releasing the leader of opposition and for democratization of the country, without paying any attention to the sufferings faced by the Muslims. The US Embassy in Burma issued a statement mentioning that the Charge d'Affaires of the Embassy, Michael Thurston, had met with local Muslim organizations in Yangon and with the National Development Party in Arakan separately. Thurston said, "The most important thing now is that all parties should remain calm and that there is a need for more dialogue which can occur only when there is calm. He further said, "The Embassy encourages the Government of Myanmar to investigate the incidents in such a way that it respects the legal process and the rule of law." (Associated Press of America on 14/6/2012 AD), i.e. America advises the people who are exposed to killing and expulsion that you have to remain calm and you must adhere to dialogue and respect the legal procedures. This is because those who are being killed and made homeless are Muslims. But when the Buddhist monks marched in the 20/9/2007 AD and were repressed by the military regime in Burma, America stood up, raised concern and imposed harsh sanctions on Burma and then other western countries followed suit. This shows that America is not bothered by the suffering of the Muslims, nor does it pay any heed to it. Moreover, it is only interested in realizing its interests and extending its influence and in general this is the position of the whole West, which is hostile to Islam and Muslims.

11. In summary; the regime in Burma, which in the past was directly controlled by the generals in military uniform, and is now being controlled by the retired generals in civilian dress, is still loyal to the British, who have supported the regime secretly and openly, directly and indirectly, through their agents in India. Also the British have supported the Buddhists in the killing and torturing of Muslims, not only in recent times, but ever since the Islamic rule came to an end in that country.

In their method of political deceitfulness, the British have brought the military regime in Burma closer to the communists from Russia and China, in order to gain their support in case the US launches an attack against this regime.

With regards to the US, it supports the National Democratic Party led by Aung San Suu Kyi and made her win the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991. Her father Aung Sang was opposed to the British and was killed in 1947 AD, with the opposition leader accused of killing him. Her father was considered a champion of the independence.

In spite of the political tussle between America and Britain in Burma, they agree to support the Buddhists in torturing the Muslims, without the West being moved by any alleged humane feelings, except in some hollow public statements. However, they protest if the monks are faced with the repression of their protest or get exposed to prison by any rival Buddhist.

As for China, it supports the regime to achieve the economic and strategic interests therein without gaining any political influence in the country.

And as for the rulers in the Muslim countries, they are subservient to America and the West in totality. So they are completely inactive, even the neighboring Bangladesh does not support its Muslim brothers, who are exposed to severe persecution and ethnic cleansing for over hundreds of years. In addition, not only do they not help them but they also clamp down on those who take refuge in Bangladesh and close the borders for them. These rulers instead of responding to the command of Allah,

﴿ وَإِنِ اسْتَنْصَرُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ فَعَلَيْكُمُ النَّصْرُ ﴾

"and if they seek your help in religion, it is your duty to help them" [Surah Al-Anfaal 8: 72]

respond to America and other Western countries and send troops to other conflict zones, bearing marks of the forces of United Nations on their heads and shoulders!

Good deeds are not expected from these rulers; rather they are bent on evil and the security will not return to the Muslims in that country unless the Khilafah returns under which they took refuge and sought protection since the rule of Khaleefah Harun al-Rashid and for more than three and half centuries, because it is only the Khilafah which will provide them security and will spread the good deeds throughout the world and the Khilafah is, inshaaAllah, on the horizon.□

This is why we call for establishing the Khilafah State!

The Khilafah, which was destroyed by infidels on 28th Rajab 1342 A.H, was not merely a historic event that occurred and had its impact similar to any such event; it was a horrible tremor that shook the Islamic world and the Muslims are still bearing with its devastating consequences. The fall of the Khilafah State meant the fall of the Muslims' awe and prestige; and the demise of Khilafah implied the end of their well-being and abandoned Muslims at the mercy of other nations who looted them, pilfered their resources and tore their one unified state into bits and pieces. Having been respected earlier, the Muslims were now a humiliated lot. Truly, the Muslims can only seek glory through the Sharee'ah of Allah (swt), and if they seek their glory and prestige elsewhere, He (swt) will only put them to shame, He (swt) says:

﴿ مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ فَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ جَمِيعًا ﴾

“Whosoever desires honour, power and glory, then to Allâh belong all honour, power and glory [and one can get honour, power and glory only by obeying and worshipping Allâh (Alone)]”. [TMQ Fatir:10]

The issue of Khilafah is not a matter of choice for the Muslims which they may either opt for or abandon; rather it is binding upon them and an obligation that must be fulfilled, and will remain so until it is established! No Muslim can be absolved of this responsibility until he puts in his entire efforts and works with a group to establish the Khilafah State which is the mother of all obligations since the application of all Islamic commands rests with it as well as the unity of Muslims and undertaking of jihad to spread the message of Islam to the world.

The Islamic order of ruling and governance obligated by Allah (swt) is the system of Khilafah, where a Khaleefah is appointed by virtue of the Bai'ah of the Muslims. This Bai'ah is given subject to the Qura'n and the Sunnah, and the Khaleefah is enjoined to rule over them in accordance with the provisions of the Allah (swt)'s revelation. The Khilafah is the general leadership of all Muslims in the world to establish provisions of Islamic law, the thoughts and ideas enshrined in Islam and the legislated provisions. It is the Khilafah State which ensures that the call of Islam is spread in the world and it undertakes Jihad in the path of Allah (swt).

The texts of the Qura'n, the Sunnah and the consensus of the companions of Prophet clearly indicate the obligation of appointing a single ruler for the entire Muslim body, who would rule in accordance with the provisions of Islam.

That such a ruler be a Khaleefah, who is given Bai'ah by the Muslims to rule over them in accordance with Islamic laws, Allah (swt) says:

﴿ فَاحْكُم بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ عَمَّا جَاءَكَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ ﴾

“So judge among them by what Allâh has revealed, and follow not their vain desires, diverging away from the truth that has come to you”. [TMQ Al-Maidah: 48]

And He says:

﴿ وَأَنْ احْكُم بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَاحْذَرْهُمْ أَنْ يَفْتِنُوكَ عَنْ بَعْضِ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ ﴾

“And so judge (you O Muhammad [sal-Allâhu ‘alayhi wa sallam]) among them by what Allâh has revealed and follow not their vain desires, but beware of them lest they turn you (O Muhammad [sal-Allâhu ‘alayhi wa sallam]) far away from some of that which Allâh has sent down to you”. [TMQ Al-Maidah:49]

And the Prophet (saw) says:

”من خلع يداً من طاعة لقي الله يوم القيامة لا حجة له، ومن مات وليس في عنقه بيعة مات ميتة جاهلية“
رواه مسلم

“Whoever takes off his hand from an obedience, he will meet Allah on the Resurrection Day without having any proof to show for himself; and whoever dies while having no Bay'ah on his neck he dies the death of the days of ignorance (Jahiliyyah).” [Narrated by Muslim].

And the Prophet (saw) further says:

”تكون النبوة فيكم ما شاء الله أن تكون، ثم يرفعها إذا شاء أن يرفعها. ثم تكون خلافة على منهاج النبوة، فتكون ما شاء الله أن تكون، ثم يرفعها إذا شاء الله أن يرفعها. ثم تكون ملكاً“ “ف يكون ما شاء الله أن يكون، ثم يرفعها إذا شاء أن يرفعها، ثم تكون ملكاً جبرية، فتكون ما شاء الله أن تكون، ثم يرفعها إذا شاء أن يرفعها. ثم تكون خلافة على منهاج النبوة، ثم سكت” أخرجه أحمد

“The Prophethood will be among you as long as Allah wills, then he will eliminate it if he so wills. Then a khilafah on the model of Prophethood will prevail so long as Allah wills, then he will eliminate it if he so wills. Then there will be a biting monarchy as long as Allah wills, then he will eliminate it if he so wills. Then there will be an oppressive monarchy as long as Allah wills, then he will eliminate it if he so wills. Then a Khilafah on the way of Prophethood will prevail and he kept silent.”

And the Prophet (saw) further says:

”كانت بنو إسرائيل تسوسهم الأنبياء، كلما هلك نبي خلفه نبي، وإنه لا نبي بعدي، وستكون خلفاء فتكثر، قالوا فما تأمرنا؟ قال: فوا ببيعة الأول فالأول، وأعطوهم حقهم، فإن الله سائلهم عما استرعاهم“
“The prophets ruled over the children of Israel. Whenever a prophet died, another prophet succeeded him, but there will be no prophet after me. There will soon be Khulafaa' and they will number many. They asked: What then do you order us? He said: Fulfill Bay'ah to them one after the other, and give them their dues, for verily Allah will ask them about what He entrusted them with."

The companions of the Prophet, at the demise of the Prophet (saw) as well as upon the demise of each of the Khaleefah, were unanimous on the obligation of appointing a single Khaleefah. The Muslims painstakingly preserved this until the Khilafah was destroyed by the Kuffar and their stooges. Also the Muslim scholars over the centuries have agreed on the obligation of appointing a single Khaleefah.

O Muslims:

The Islamic Ummah has now realised now that Islam and rule of Islam through a Khilafah state, is the only way it can redeem itself. The Ummah regards the present ruling apparatus in the Islamic world as one that not only does not rule by Islam, but it actually counters it and hinders Islam's call. The present regimes are geared to dissuade Muslims from the path of Allah (swt), and they conspire with the Kufr nations to prevent the resurgence of Islam in the daily lives of the Muslims! There is no other way to restore the pride and glory of Muslims except to overthrow the corrupt regimes, and work to establish a Khilafah state. This has been promised by Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw). However much the Kuffar and their stooges conspire to prevent the return of the Khilafah, Allah (swt) will destroy their conspiracies and bring them to reckoning. Therefore, Rise up Oh Muslims to work with Hizb ut-Tahrir to accomplish the obligation of the Khilafah which Allah (swt) has promised:

﴿وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِينَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَىٰ لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ أَمْنًا يَعْبُدُونَنِي لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِي شَيْئًا وَمَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ﴾

“Allâh has promised those among you who believe and do righteous good deeds, that He will certainly grant them succession to (the present rulers) in the land, as He granted it to those before them, and that He will grant them the authority to practise their religion which He has chosen for them (i.e. Islâm). And He will surely give them in exchange a safe security after their fear (provided) they (believers) worship Me and do not associate anything (in worship) with Me. But whoever disbelieved after this, they are the Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Allah)”. [TMQ An-Noor:55]□

Hasina government drives oppressed Muslims from Myanmar into the sea whereas she gives red carpet welcome to the imperialists

From June 3, 2012, Muslims in the Rakhaine state of Myanmar known as Rohingyas came under fresh attack by the local Buddhists. On that day, a group of Buddhists killed ten Muslims who were riding a bus. They beat the Muslims to death before setting the bus on fire. The incident was allegedly in response to the rape and murder of a Buddhist girl by three Muslim men, a few days before. It did not matter to the killers that the men accused of the rape had already been arrested and were in jail. Situation turned worse from June 8 as thousands of homes were burnt and looted and hundreds of Muslims were killed by combined operation of local Buddhists, police, border guard forces named 'Nasaka' and para military forces called 'Luntin'. More than 30,000 Muslims took shelter in the refugee camps in the state capital Sittwe. Myanmar government declared curfew which is only applicable to Muslims. According to local newspapers in Bangladesh, the combined forces have abducted more than five thousand women in last week. Government of Bangladesh has sealed the border with Myanmar as hundreds of Muslim women and children are trying to flee from rape and murder every day. Border guards of Bangladesh have pushed back boats carrying more than 1,500 refugees just in three days according to local newspapers.

Foreign Minister of Bangladesh Dipu Moni responded to the situation on June 14 in the national parliament. In the despicable statement she said, "Bangladesh is not bound by any international law to open its border for the Rohingyas, as there is no war-like situation in that country and that its government is not forcing its citizens out." She alleged that Rohingyas create problems for the environment, employment, law and order, politics as well as national security.

Of course Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and her Foreign Minister Dipu Moni can entertain foreign guests and delegates from USA, UK or India. They can have strategic dialogue with Hillary Clinton. They can allow US Special Forces to visit Bangladesh at their will. And also the government is ready to allow any US soldier to leave the country without facing any trial if he commits any crime here. Sheikh Hasina also can allow transit to India not caring for any national security, political, law and order or environmental damages. But when oppressed Muslims knock at their doors, they use force to push them back.

Over the last half century Muslims in Myanmar are being systematically oppressed, looted and persecuted by the government of Myanmar. From 7th century up to 1784, Arakan (called Rakhaine province under Myanmar now) was a Muslim state. In that year it was colonized by a Buddhist Burmese king. The British came in 1824 and ruled till 1948. According to 1948 Citizenship Law, Rohingyas were also made citizens of the country and a number of Rohingyas were elected to Burma parliament. But in 1962, General Ne Win, who took over power in a military coup, revoked Rohingyas' citizenship and made them stateless. They were considered as immigrants from Bangladesh (then East Pakistan). The army then subjected them to forced labour, expropriated their property and did extra judicial killing. They denied Rohingyas employment, access to education and trade, and also restricted their movement. Even their right to marry was subject to permission which had to be bought with high bribes from the authorities.

Like Muslims of Palestine, Kashmir, Iraq, Afghanistan and many other places, Muslims of Myanmar are oppressed in their own land. And the whole Muslim world is in reality stateless. Al-Tabarani and Al-Baihaqi reported that the Messenger (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) said:

"The Sultan is the shade of Allah on earth."

Without Khaleefah, there is no authority, no state, no protection and no security for the Muslims. It is the duty of the Muslims of Bangladesh to embrace their brothers from Myanmar. Nu'man b. Bashir reported Allah's Messenger (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) as saying:

"The similitude of believers in regard to their mutual love, affection, and fellow-feeling is that of one body; when any limb of it aches, the whole body aches, because of sleeplessness and fever."

The duty of Bangladesh border guards is not to push back hungry, homeless and tortured Muslims. Prophet (saw) declared life, property and honour of Muslims as protected. It is the duty of the armed forces of Bangladesh to protect their Muslim brothers and sisters from Myanmar the way our Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) and Khaleefahs after him have sent forces to protect Muslims. We know that the current regime will never do that. So, it is upon us to remove the oppressive regime and establish Khilafah which will liberate and protect the Muslims all over the world.□

Russia Sending Warships on manoeuvres near Syria:

Russia said on Tuesday that it had dispatched a flotilla of 11 warships to the eastern Mediterranean, some of which would dock in Syria. It would be the largest display of Russian military power in the region since the Syrian conflict began almost 17 months ago. Nearly half of the ships were capable of carrying hundreds of marines. The announcement appeared intended to punctuate Russia's effort to position itself as an increasingly decisive broker in resolving the antigovernment uprising in Syria, Russia's last ally in the Middle East and home to Tartus, its only foreign military base outside the former Soviet Union. The announcement also came a day after Russia said it was halting new shipments of weapons to the Syrian military. But the unusually large size of the force announced on Tuesday was considered a message, not just to the region but also to the United States and other nations supporting the rebels now trying to depose Syria's president, Bashar al-Assad. □

Suicides surge among US troops:

Suicides are surging among America's troops, averaging nearly one a day this year - the fastest pace in the nation's decade of war. The 154 suicides for active-duty troops in the first 155 days of the year far outdistance the U.S. forces killed in action in Afghanistan about 50 percent more according to Pentagon statistics obtained by the AP. The numbers reflect a military burdened with wartime demands from Iraq and Afghanistan that have taken a greater toll than foreseen a decade ago. The military also is struggling with increased sexual assaults, alcohol abuse, domestic violence and other misbehaviour. The reasons for the increase are not fully understood. Among explanations, studies have pointed to combat exposure, post-traumatic stress, misuse of prescription medications and personal financial problems. Army data suggest soldiers with multiple combat tours are at greater risk of committing suicide, although a substantial proportion of Army suicides are committed by soldiers who never deployed. □

Panetta to Pakistan: US Patience 'Reaching Limits':

U.S. Defense Secretary Leon Panetta on Thursday pressured Pakistan to do more to root out the al-Qaida-linked Haqqani terrorist network from its territory, saying that U.S. officials are "reaching the limits of our patience." The Haqqani group has been blamed for several attacks on Americans in Afghanistan, including last year's attack against the U.S. Embassy and NATO headquarters in Kabul. It also has ties to the Taliban and has emerged as perhaps the biggest threat to stability in Afghanistan. U.S. lawmakers from both parties have been urging the U.S. State Department to designate the Haqqani network a foreign terrorist organization. The U.S. has given Pakistan billions of dollars in aid for its support in fighting Islamist militants. Despite pressure from the U.S., Pakistan has remained reluctant to go after insurgents, particularly the Haqqani network. Panetta said at a news conference with Afghan Defense Minister Abdul Rahim Wardak. "We are reaching the limits of our patience here, and for that reason it is extremely important that Pakistan take action to prevent this kind of safe haven from taking place and allowing terrorists to use their country as a safety net in order to conduct their attacks on our forces. We have made that very clear time and time again and we will continue to do that, but as I said, we are reaching the limits of our patience." □

Collapse of Euro a very likely scenario:

According to Speigel investment experts at Deutsche Bank now feel that a collapse of the common currency is "a very likely scenario." German companies are preparing themselves for the possibility that their business contacts in Madrid and Barcelona could soon be paying with pesetas again. A possible scenario in which all members of the currency zone dust off their old coins and bills -- bidding farewell to the euro, and instead welcoming back the guilder, deutsche mark and drachma. It would be a dream for nationalist politicians, and a nightmare for the economy. Everything that has grown together in two decades of euro history would have to be painstakingly torn apart. Millions of contracts, business relationships and partnerships would have to be reassessed, while thousands of companies would need protection from bankruptcy. All of Europe would plunge into a deep recession. Governments, which would be forced to borrow additional billions to meet their needs, would face the choice between two unattractive options: either to drastically increase taxes or to impose significant financial burdens on their citizens in the form of higher inflation. It's a question of growth and the economy, but also of character. □

Turkey sends anti-aircraft guns to Syria border:

Turkey has begun deploying rocket launchers and anti-aircraft guns along its border with Syria after last week's shooting down of a Turkish plane. Columns of military vehicles have been seen moving from military bases to the border, close to where the jet crashed. The F-4 Phantom jet went down in the sea after straying into Syrian airspace. The pilots are still missing. Turkey's decision to re-inforce its border with Syria comes two days after Erdogan announced a change in terms of its military engagement. He told parliament that Syria was a "clear and present threat" and any "military element" that approached the Turkish border from Syria would be treated as a threat and a military target. Extra troops have been sent to the area and Turkish TV has shown pictures of a small convoy of lorries carrying anti-aircraft guns into a military base near the border town of Yayladagi. Other military vehicles have travelled to the border town of Reyhanli in Hatay province, reports say. □

Our intention is to invest and endure in Afghanistan: India

India has every intention of expanding its economic presence in Afghanistan as a NATO deadline to withdraw all its combat troops from Afghanistan by the end of 2014 draws near, indicated Nirupama Rao, India's ambassador to Washington. "Our intention is to invest and endure, and that's the approach we are taking. We already have committed about $2 billion of investment in Afghanistan and we are prepared to do more," Rao said at a Bloomberg Government breakfast in Washington. India is hosting the Delhi Investment Summit on Afghanistan today which will draw over 65 foreign companies from around the world, including 12 companies from the US and a handful of companies from even China and Pakistan. At a meeting last week between Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and External Affairs Minister SM Krishna, the two countries agreed to hold three-way talks with Afghanistan. At the cost of making Pakistan hyperventilate the US has become very vocal in its appreciation of Indian efforts in Afghanistan. It now wants India to fill up the post-US vacuum in Afghanistan and play a bigger role in training Afghan security forces. □

Drone pilots to get medals for killing Muslims:

American drones have been used in Pakistan, Yemen, Afghanistan and Somalia that have often resulted in the killing of innocent Muslims. Now the Pentagon is considering awarding a Distinguished Warfare Medal to drone pilots who work on military bases often far removed from the battlefield. Pentagon officials have been briefed on the medal's "unique concept," Charles V. Mugno, head of the Army Institute of Heraldry, told a recent meeting of the Commission of Fine Arts, according to a report in Coin World. Mugno said most combat decorations require "boots on the ground" in a combat zone, but he noted that "emerging technologies" such as drones and cyber combat missions are now handled by troops far removed from combat. The Pentagon has not formally endorsed the medal, but Mugno's institute has completed six alternate designs for commission approval. □

Re-opening of the NATO supply line and military operations

"Allah forbade you only those who warred against you on account of religion and have driven you out from your homes and helped to drive you out, that you make friends of them. Whosoever makes friends of them (All) such are wrong doers." [Al-Mumtahina 60:9]

So has the time not yet come that the officers of the armed forces decide whether they will follow the foot steps of Rashid Minhas who refused to follow orders and stood against the treachery of his senior, or will they follow the legacy of General Niazi who's adherence to Yahyah Khans orders led to the division of the country? Do not you not see as your fellow country men that first America ruined this country with the help of Musharraf and now Kayani and his supporters are destroying Musharraf's leftovers.

O sincere officers! Arise and give the nusrrah to Hizb ut-Tahrir for the establishment of the Khilafah and do not give a moment longer for the traitors in the political and military leadership to sell the country completely to America for then you will not have anything left to save. □

Shahzad Shaikh
Deputy to the Spokesman of
Hizb ut-Tahrir in Pakistan

Book of the Month:

The personality (shakhsiyyah) of every human being is composed of the mentality ('aqliyyah) and disposition (nafsiyyah). His physical characteristics and all other aspects have no bearing on his personality - these are only superficialities. It would be pointless for anyone to think that such aspects have any relevance or bearing upon the composition of the human personality.

The mentality is the tool used for understanding things; meaning it is the mode for passing judgement on reality according to a specific standard which man believes in and trusts. If his understanding of things in terms of passing judgement upon them is based on the 'Islamic 'Aqeedah, then he has an Islamic mentality, if not he has a mentality other than the Islamic mentality.

The behavioural disposition (nafsiyyah) is the method for satisfying man's instincts and organic needs i.e. the manner in which they are satisfied according to a standard which man believes in and trusts.

When the satisfaction is based on the Islamic 'Aqeedah then he has an Islamic disposition, if not he has a disposition other than the Islamic behavioural disposition. If a person has one standard for the mentality and behavioural disposition, then his personality becomes distinctive and regulated. If the Islamic 'Aqeedah was the basis of his mentality and behavioural disposition, his personality would be Islamic. If not, then his personality would be something else.

Therefore, it is not enough that only his mentality is Islamic where he is able to judge things and actions correctly according to the rules of the Sharee'ah, where he can deduce rules, know the Halaal and Haraam and have maturity in thinking and awareness. So he is able to speak and in a strong and influential manner and give sound analysis of events. This on its own is not enough, for he must also have an Islamic disposition where he satisfies his instincts and organic needs on the basis of Islam. He prays, fasts, purifies himself and makes Hajj, engages in the Halaal and avoids the Haraam. He endeavours to be, as Allah wants him to be, drawing closer to Him (swt) through the obligations He has imposed and is eager to do the Nawaafil (supererogatory acts of devotion) so as to draw even closer to Him (swt). He adopts true and sincere stances towards events, where he enjoins the good and forbids the evil, he loves for Allah's sake and hates for Allah's sake and deals with people with a good and upright character.

Similarly, it is not enough just to have an Islamic disposition, without having as well an Islamic mentality. Worshipping Allah in ignorance can cause man to deviate from the straight path. So he might fast on a day in which it is prohibited to fast, pray when it is Makrooh. He might say 'Laa Hawla Walaa Quwwata illa billah' when he sees someone committing a Munkar instead of accounting him and forbidding him from engaging in such an evil action. In other words, he is doing a bad action while he thinks he is doing something good. So he would satisfy his instincts and organic needs contrary to the way Allah and His Messenger ordered.

The more a Muslim increases in his Islamic culture to develop his mentality, and the more he increases the performance of the recommended actions to strengthen his disposition the more he will proceed towards the sublime ascent. Not only will he become firm on this ascent but also he will continue to be elevated even higher and higher. This is when he controls his life in the proper manner and attains the Akhirah by striving for it as a believer. He will be allied to the Mihraab (recess indicating the direction for salah) of the mosque whilst at the same time he is a hero of Jihad characterised by the best of attributes; a servant of Allah the Almighty, the Creator and Originator.

In this book we would like to present to the Muslims generally, but more specifically to the Da'wah carriers, the essential elements of the Islamic personality so that the Da'wah carrier, while he is working to establish Khilafah, his tongue is moist with the remembrance of Allah, that his heart is filled with fear of Allah and his limbs hasten towards the good deeds. He recites the Qur'an, acts upon it, loves Allah and His Messenger, loves for Allah's sake and hates for Allah's sake, hopes for the mercy of Allah and fears His punishment, he is patient, expecting the reward in the Hereafter, sincere and reliant upon Allah. He is firm on the truth like the towering mountain, He is soft, gentle and compassionate towards the believers but firm and strong against the disbelievers, fearing none for Allah's sake. He possesses a good character, he is sweet in speech but strong in proof, enjoins the good and forbids the evil, he lives and works in this life but his eyes always look towards the Jannah, whose width is that of the heavens and the earth prepared for the believers.

The Prophet (saw) enlightened us, "Indeed, Allah (swt) said: The one who humiliates my waly (pious servant) he has displayed hostility towards me. O son of Adam! You will not obtain that which I have save by performing the duties I ordained upon you. My servant will continue to draw closer to me though the nawaafil until I love him. I will then be the heart with which he thinks, the tongue with which he speaks, the sight by which he sees. So, when he calls me I will answer him, when he asks me for something I shall give it to him, and when he asks for my help I shall help him and the most beloved of my servants worship is the sincere advice."□
